Mo-Pac Ballots Prepared

They Will Be Mailed Tuesday; Deadline For Return June 9; 30,000 Are Ready

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Ballots for the long-awaited vote by creditors and security holders on the latest plan to end the 21-year bankruptcy of the Missouri Pacific Railroad will be mailed from St. Louis next Tuesday.

Russell L. DeArmont, attorney for Trustee Guy A. Thompson of the MoPac, said the ballots must be voted and returned with a postmark of no later than June 9. The trustee is conducting the vote for the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Some 30,000 individuals will receive ballots.

The reorganization plan already has been approved by the ICC and by Federal District Judge George H. Moore.

If two-thirds of each of the 13 classes of creditors and security holders approve the plan, it will receive automatic acceptance and Judge Moore must then confirm the plan.

In the event the plan gains less than two-thirds approval by any class, then it will be up to Judge Moore to decide whether the plan should or should not be confirmed. The plan, which gives some value to common stock and calls for a consolidation of the various lines of the MoPac system, is being opposed by three groups in the U. S. Court of Appeals here. The case has not been heard as yet.

Judge Moore today approved the election by the reorganization managers of Isaac B. Grainger as their chairman. Grainger is executive vice president of the Chemical Corn Exchange Bank of New York.

Also approved was the appointment of William D. Carr of New York as secretary for the managers, and the selection as co-counsel of the New York law firms of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft, and Davis, Polk, Wardwell, Sunderland & Kiendl.

Trade 'Bouyant' In Free World Says Authority

WASHINGTON (AP)—A gathering of American businessmen today received an optimistic forecast of "bouyant," growing foreign trade in the next year for the United States and most of its free world partners.

This forecast was given by E. E. Schnelbacher in remarks prepared for a breakfast arranged by the American Chambers of Commerce abroad, a division of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, which ends its 43rd annual meeting here today. Schnelbacher is intelligence director or the Commerce Department's Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

Schnelbacher said he foresaw increased export and import volumes as well as lowering of foreign trade barriers.

If the present "upsurge of industrial activity" in this country continues, Schnelbacher said, the United States may very well end large its raw material purchases from Latin America, Canada and other areas.

The Pettis County Post No. 16 American Legion has voted to send a boy to Boys State at Central Missouri State College in Warrensburg during the State convention June 13-25.

The Legion will hold nominations for post commander at its next meeting May 16. At this meeting the officers for the year of 1955-56 will be nominated and an election will follow at the next regular meeting.

Leaders Flock to Saigon--

US Urges a Monarchy By South Vietmanese

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The United States today was reported recommending that a constitutional monarchy be established for strife-torn South Viet Nam.

As authoritative sources revealed this current American position, local and provincial Vietmanese leaders flocked to Saigon for a special congress called by Premier Ngo Dinh Diem to act on the National Revolutionary Committee's demand for the ouster of chief of state Bao Dai, the ex-emperor of Annam.

From his luxurious villa on the French Riviera, Bao Dai denounced the congress—or "states general"—as illegal.

The American position was said to be that because of South Viet Nam's political immaturity, the stabilizing influence of a monarchy with only limited powers is needed to give continuity and avoid chaos.

The sources said that should local sentiment prove so great against Bao Dai, his son Bao Long or some other member of the former royal house could be designated ruler with tightly circumscribed powers.

Bao Dai, now 42, succeeded to the throne of the central Viet Nam kingdom of Annam in 1926. A puppet first of the French and then of the Japanese during the occupation, he abdicated at the end of the war and became a "supreme councilor" in the postwar revolutionary government of Communist Ho Chi Minh.

Early in 1946 he fled to Hong Kong and lived in exile there or on the French Riviera. The French brought him back in 1949 to be chief of state for Viet Nam. He went to France in April 1954 and hasn't been back to Saigon since.

Sentiment against the playboy ex-emperor increased in Saigon today. Newspapers appearing a few hours before the states general assembly gathered carried violent attacks against him.

Some published photographs of him crossed by large black marks. One displayed a picture of Bao Dai with his bulldog and asked, "Which is the more interesting?"

The Western Allies were reported planning to resist a Russian demand that Austria guarantee to keep her oil industry—operated by the U. S. Standard-Vacuum Oil Co. and Royal Dutch Shell before World War II—out of foreign hands. The industry now produces an estimated three million tons of crude oil a year and has extensive refining and marketing agencies.

In exchange for the Austrian ban on foreign ownership, the Soviets have offered to waive provisions of the previous treaty draft which gave them drilling and extraction rights in some fields for 30 years and for 26 years in others.

The Austrians were reported ready to agree to the Soviet condition, which also includes Austrian delivery of 10 million tons of crude oil to Russia in the next 10 years. Socialist members of Austria's coalition government want to nationalize the oil industry.

Hitler's Nazis seized the oil properties from the U. S. and Dutch companies soon after World War II began. The Russians grabbed them after the war as German assets and reparations.

Standard-Vacuum and Shell claimed they were forced to sell to the Nazis under duress. They are seeking to get the properties back.

Conference sources reported last night that the Soviets had come up with a surprise proposal that all occupation troops be pulled out of Austria by Dec. 31, even if the treaty had not been signed by then.

Senate Defeats Bill To Junk Ike's Plans For Reciprocal Trade

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate overwhelmingly defeated a proposal to junk President Eisenhower's reciprocal trade program today, handing the administration a victory in the first floor test on the foreign trade bill.

Sen. Malone (R-Nev.) proposed a substitute plan that was defeated by voice vote.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) floor manager for the bill, used less than one minute of time for debate on the substitute, although he was entitled to one hour.

"I hope this amendment will be defeated," said Byrd. "It would be a great mistake to adopt it."

The Senate met an hour and a half earlier than usual to debate the bill and vote on it by tonight. Sponsors were confident they could defeat major amendments.

Expect Polio Vaccine For Private Patients

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The first shipments of Salk polio vaccine by Eli Lilly & Co. to physicians in the St. Louis area for inoculation of private patients will be made during the last half of this month, a representative of the firm announced today.

Fluoridate Water

HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP)—Hannibal's Board of Public Works will fluoridate the city's water supply within the next three months. The city council approved the action by an 8-2 vote Monday night.

Approves Cigarette Revenue

Would Levy Package Tax of Two Cents; Would Add Between $8-10 Million Yearly

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri Senate gave first round approval today to a plan for a two-cent package tax on cigarettes—estimated to produce $8 to $10 million more a year in state revenue.

Missouri has no cigarette tax now but many cities have local taxes. The state tax would be in addition to the local levies. If it gets through both houses of the legislature, the proposal would go before the people at a special election Oct. 4.

That's the same day set for a proposed election on a sales tax increase from two to two and a half per cent, still pending in the House.

Before the Senate advanced the cigarette tax plan to position for passage, Sen. John W. Noble (D) of Kennett explained that it is part of the program to raise additional revenue needed to finance higher school aid, an expanded mental health program and reform of the state's penal system.

He also agreed to an amendment, to be added next week in the House, to extend a corresponding tax to other tobacco products such as cigars, pipe tobacco, chewing tobacco and so on.

As introduced it applied only to cigarettes.

Noble estimated adding the other products might increase the state's take by around $1½ million a year.

Sen. Jack S. Curtis (R) of Springfield won adoption of an amendment cutting down the discount that would be allowed wholesalers for affixing tax stamps. The original proposal called for a five per cent discount but Curtis' amendment cut that to two per cent.

Sneak Thief Enters Home On East Fifth

A sneak thief entered the home of Mrs. J. B. Batson, 422 East Fifth, Tuesday evening where he ransacked the residence and apparently succeeded in finding hiding places for money which Mrs. Batson had hidden. It was reported between $1,000 and $1,500 was stolen from the residence.

Mrs. Batson was working in her yard and at the side of her home. The front door was securely locked and the back door standing open. The man is believed to have slipped into the residence, helped himself to some cookies, then went on his tour of the home. Drawers, cookie jars, spice jars and the bathroom closet were searched.

The thief also found four or five $20 bills in an old pitcher.

A man was seen in the backyard by neighbors who reported it to the police. Mrs. Batson. A check revealed a man was seen to have caught a ride near Highway 50 and Emmett and headed east on Highway 50. The State Highway Patrol was notified and a lookout for such a man as described by the neighbors was started.

Senate Chops Over $2 Million From Agencies

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri Senate chopped $2,197,500 from a bill appropriating post-war reserve funds to state agencies today.

The bill now goes back to the House, then to conference committee for final adjustment.

The Senate cut the state fair's allotment for a youth activities building from $192,000 to $180,000. But it left untouched $100,000 for a new sheep barn.

The Senate's action left $20,122,950 in the bill, including $13½ million reappropriated to the University of Missouri for the new medical school, $1¼ million reappropriated to the university to finish remodeling Jesse Hall and $800,000 reappropriated to Lincoln University to complete an auditorium and fine arts building.

Cut out entirely was an item of $1½ million for eradication of bangs disease. Sen. John W. Noble (D) of Kennett said this program would be covered in a later catchall bill.

Also eliminated was $135,500 for additions and repairs at the St. James Federal Soldiers' Home and $400,000 for matching federal armory funds.

Noble said the armory allotment also would be considered in the final catchall bill.

Sanitation Department Gives Final Report For Clean-up Week

A report from the city sanitation department shows that a total of 413 loads of rubbish were dumped at the city incinerator and city disposal ground near the old municipal airport during the Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up campaign last week.

Commercial trucks hauled 145 loads to the city disposal grounds and 59 loads to the city's incinerator plant. Street and alley trucks carried 135 loads to the disposal area and garbage trucks made a total of 54 trips. State trucks accounted for six loads and passenger cars deposited 15 loads.

The average number of loads per week, according to the report, is about 246.

Backscratching Takes Over In Legislature

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Backscratching took over in the Missouri House today as members helped each other pass once-defeated bills.

The legislators rejected the advice of party leaders in the move to pass pet bills on the Senate.

Helpless floor managers warned that the measures probably wouldn't even get out of Senate committee in these final legislative days of the 1955 regular session.

Members were told the rebellion might easily jeopardize important legislation. But the reconsideration circus went on.

Then the House again killed a bill to provide an underground parking garage near the capitol. But they passed and sent to the Senate a measure increasing maximum lengths and weights for trucks.

The garage bill came within five votes of passage. It was revived by Reps. Charles W. Foley (D) of Pemiscot County and Thomas Graham (D) of Cole County.

It was recommended by Gov. Phil M. Donnelly and is designed to relieve the tangled parking problem around the capitol. Estimated cost is about $900,000.

Republicans attacked the measure as wasteful. Rep. A. Clifford Jones of St. Louis County said, "so now we're going to keep the big fat bureaucrats from walking."

"They've gotten fat enough off the state," he charged.

And Rep. Samuel B. Murphy, another St. Louis County Republican, told of a new plan offered by a Jefferson City banker. The problem could be solved, he said, by buying a shoe factory adjacent to the capitol grounds.

It would, he said, rid the neighborhood of an unsightly factory, have fewer automobiles taking up capitol parking space, and provide a site for a parking lot.

Trucks using Missouri highways could be five feet longer and 4,640 pounds heavier if the other bill reconsidered is enacted. The House killed the bill yesterday, but it picked up strength and sailed through today.

Then the House reconsidered and passed the so-called "parade bill" for the Jackson County Court. It would permit the court to expend county funds for any purpose to advertise the county.

Opponents said it gave the county far too much power but sponsors had 92 votes to push it across.

Johnny Lawson Hurt Second Time Recently In Highway Accident

Johnny Lawson, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lawson, Sweet Springs, was seriously injured about three weeks ago when he fell from his horse in front of an automobile. Wednesday morning, at about 8:45, he was injured again when the car in which he was riding with his mother overturned on Highway 40, 14 miles west of Sweet Springs. Mrs. Lawson was also injured.

Mrs. Lawson reported she was driving west on the highway, going to the Independence Sanitarium for a check up with Johnny, when the mishap occurred.

It was reported Mrs. Lawson lost control of the 1947 tudor Chevrolet sedan and it overturned in a ditch. The car was demolished.

Mrs. Lawson and Johnny were returned to Sweet Springs in the Parker ambulance and taken to the Roberts and Worley Clinic for treatment of slight lacerations, abrasions, bruises and shock.

Trip By Coroner Finds Man Just In Slumber

Dr. C. L. Lawless, Saline County coroner, was sent on a cold trail Tuesday morning.

Dr. Lawless received a call that a dead man had been found under a culvert on 40 highway near Marshall Junction. When the coroner arrived he found the man merely was sleeping.

Pledges Availability of Polio Vaccine to Every Youngster

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower pledged today that no child will go without polio vaccine because his parents can't pay for it. The White House said later the President will ask authority, if necessary, to buy all commercial supplies.

The President made his pledge at a news conference.

Shortly afterward James C. Hagerly, White House press secretary, called in reporters to elaborate.

He said Eisenhower will seek authority to buy all of the Salk product which the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis does not take for the free inoculation of first and second graders, if that is necessary to meet the pledge.

Hagerly said that if a situation developed where some children could not get an inoculation because of lack of money, "the President would immediately ask the Congress of the United States for authority to permit the secretary of health, education and welfare to buy the entire output of the vaccine, other than that already allocated to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis."

Hagerly added: "The department in turn would be in a position to distribute free of cost to the states their allotted share of the vaccine over an emergency period."

Rep. Martin Wants Federal Vaccine Guard

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts said today he favors "some federal supervision" over distribution of the Salk polio vaccine.

Martin thus joined a growing number of House members and senators in both political parties advocating temporary controls. Their goal to assure that while supplies are still scarce, the vaccine goes first to children in the 5 to 9 age group, which is most susceptible to polio.

Most of the plans call for younger children to get the next priority. Several bills also would control prices of the vaccine.

The Eisenhower administration has favored trying voluntary methods first.

Martin said he had no recommendations but thought a House committee "should look into" the matter of controls.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) of the House Banking Committee, which handles controls legislation, said he hoped to be able to starting hearings by Friday.

Chairman Priest (D-Tenn.) of the House Commerce Committee, which handles general health matters, cautioned against too hasty action. He said his committee is "watching the situation very closely but we haven't yet reached the point where we think legislative action is required or desirable at the present time."

Governors agreed at an administration-sponsored meeting yesterday to name a committee to work with the government on distribution problems. Some of them said they got no clear picture from Secretary of Welfare Hobby as to what is planned.

"It's a little bit disturbing," said Republican Gov. Milward L. Simpson of Wyoming, "that they haven't come up with some program after having nearly a month to work one out. They seem to be just going around in circles."

Nationalists Report New Red Buildup

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist China today produced fresh reports of a Red buildup near the offshore islands and said its planes damaged three Communist gunboats in the Quemoy area.

The air force said its pilots sought out the gunboats, described as between 300 and 400 tons, on the landward side of Quemoy in western Amoy Bay. The area is 120 miles west of Formosa across the strait.

Pilots said one of the gunboats caught fire and suffered heavy damage.

The Communist buildup threatening the offshore islands continues both near Quemoy and in the area opposite the Matsu group 175 miles up the coast, the Taitao News Agency reported.

The Reds are patrolling the coast with high-speed torpedo boats, said the agency, which is operated by the Interior Ministry.

Commando units are being organized to spearhead attacks on both groups of islands, it asserted.

Foreign Minister George Yeh today personally denied local press reports which said he had hinted Nationalist China might agree to a cease-fire.

He told a press conference, among other things that his government "has never requested, nor has the United States government offered, American ground forces to be stationed in Taiwan (Formosa)."

Grand Jury Blasts Prison For Catering

BOSTON (AP)—A charge that four desperate convicts dictated the terms of their own surrender to end an 84 hour rebellion last January at the Massachusetts State Prison is contained in a report County grand jury.

The report sharply criticized Atty. Gen. George Fingold, Corrections Commissioner E. Lawrence Spurr and the prison administration.

The grand jury said a "shocking breakdown of discipline and morale" was responsible for the revolt in which a bank robber, cop killer, rapist and gunman teamed up to hold five guards and six other prisoners hostages 84 hours before releasing them unharmed.

A seven-man citizens' committee negotiated release of the guards and surrender of the inmate rebels.

A move by Fingold to indict the four convicts, Fritz Swenson, Walter Balben, Theodore Green and Joseph Flaherty, was described by the jury as "tainted and tied in with a deal."

The panel said the "deal" if consummated would:

Compromise the dignity of the commonwealth.

Undermine executive authority.

Make a mockery of the court.

Jeopardize the safety of the citizenry.

The jurors said the "deal" arranged by the citizens' committee and dictated by the convicts consisted of:

Express promise of trial on former indictments by March 15, 1955.

Express promise of release into the general prison population.

Implied promise that the convicts would not be asked where they got the guns and ammunition displayed in the uprising.

Fingold declined comment on the report. He said he wished to study the charges. Spurr also refused comment. None of the citizens committee was immediately available.

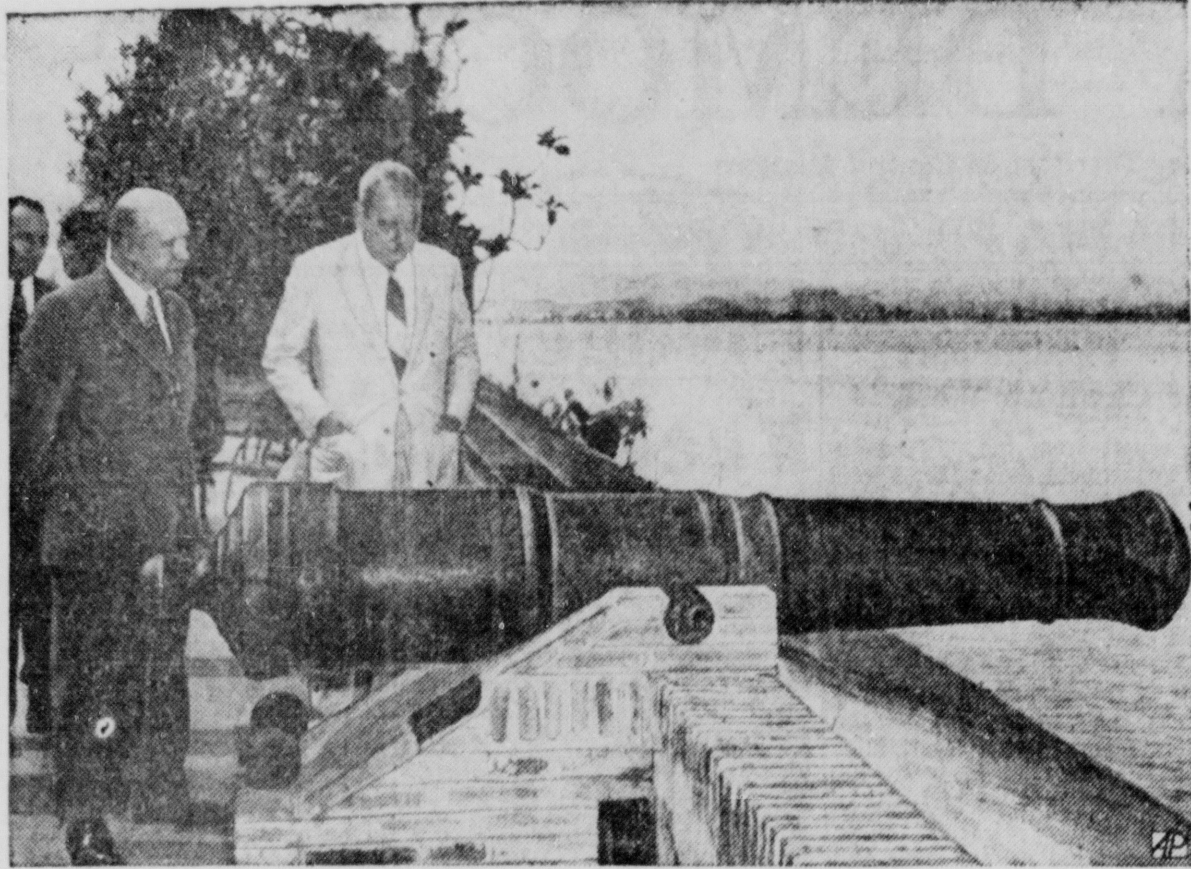

Austrians Are Taking Too Many Medicines

VIENNA (AP)—Top doctors, psychiatrists and social workers are trying to halt a growing addiction to medicines in Austria.

Health insurance statistics published recently show that Austria's seven million population consumed more than 320 million pills during 1954. The number of prescriptions for medicines climbed from 5,600,000 in 1950 to nine million last year.

A publicity campaign pointing to too much medicine as an evil is to be started soon.

Uranium Found By Grandmother Gets Many Bids

FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP)—A grandmother who started two years ago with a Geiger counter and a notion to give her ill husband some air is contemplating an offer of more than one million dollars for one block of uranium claims.

Mrs. Jeanette V. Martin, said her claim is in the Sabinosa area in northeast New Mexico, about 40 miles west of Las Vegas.

"Yes, we've had several offers for our claim and we've really only dug into one-third of them," she said.

Mrs. Martin and an Army colonel who is a "weekend prospector" are partners in the venture. The colonel, Benjamin E. Thurston, a career soldier, is at Camp Chaffee, Ark., as a training inspector. He has been in the Army 29 years.

Mrs. Martin said she and Thurston had 500 claims of 20 acres each on federal land.

Mrs. Martin and her husband, who was "a roughneck on an oil rig," came to this booming oil and uranium center from Los Angeles seven years ago.

"At first I started going out with a $30 Geiger counter to give Vearle some outings," she said.

"Then one thing led to another and here we are. Now we've got a major project."

Mrs. Martin's husband suffered from a head, back and neck injury.

Thurston is a native of Minneapolis.

American Veterans Of Meeting at Elbe Lack Money for Trip

NEW YORK (AP)—Ten American veterans today still were seeking funds for a trip to Moscow for a reunion with the Soviet soldiers they met at the Elbe River during World War II.

The 10 were stranded here yesterday after it turned out they hadn't sufficient funds to reach Paris. Transportation from Paris to Moscow was assured them by the Soviet government.

The Moscow reunion, part of the Soviet celebration of the 10th anniversary of victory over Nazi Germany, is set for May 9. The Americans were invited by the Soviet government.

Joseph Polowsky, of Chicago, head of the group, appealed for funds. He said he is determined to make the trip, even if the others cannot.

The group canceled reservations on a Trans World Airlines flight last night after it became apparent they hadn't enough money.

"We thought we had a commitment for the money but it didn't materialize," Polowsky said.

Gusty Winds Blamed For Jumping Mishaps

PANAMA (AP)—Twenty-four U. S. Army paratroopers were recovering today from injuries suffered in a mass drop during a war games exercise. The most serious injury was a broken nose.

Gusty winds which dragged the men over the ground were blamed for the mishap.

A total of 480 men of the 11th Airborne Division from Ft. Campbell, Ky., took part in the mass jump, staged at Rio Hato, 75 miles from Panama City.

The names of the injured were not disclosed.

Thousands of spectators and 250 Latin-American observers watched as the paratroopers jumped in waves of 120 each from six Globemaster transports.

Immigrant Has Party; New Citizen

DETROIT (AP)—Alfred P. Adamo is giving a party today in honor of his friend of 50 years standing—the United States of America.

Adamo, 67, has invited 300 friends to join him in celebrating the 50th anniversary of the day he arrived in this country as a penniless Italian immigrant.

Each guest will receive a printed booklet, written by Adamo, on "What America and Freedom Has Meant to Me."

It tells the story of an Italian boy who grew up on a farm in the province of Catanzaro, where beauty abounded but where opportunity was strictly limited.

At 17, when he was working as a bricklayer's assistant at 4 cents a day, Adamo persuaded a cousin in Pittsburgh to advance him the boat fare to the United States. He landed in this country May 4, 1905, and obtained his first job in Pittsburgh, working on the city streets at $1 a day.

During the next 10 years he worked as a foundry worker and dishwasher in Pittsburgh, a miner in West Virginia, a day laborer, railroad section hand and janitor in Denver. He became a U. S. citizen in 1913.

In 1915, lured by reports that Henry Ford was paying $5 a day to his auto plant workers, Adamo came to Detroit. Here, he successfully became a foundry worker, auto worker and grocery owner before starting his own real estate and insurance office, a business he still runs.

Adamo has this to say in his booklet paying tribute to his adopted country:

"America is the only country in the world that has given man justice, freedom and equality."

Extortion Stunt Foiled By Paint On Man's Hands

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Glenn Colgan, 26, who said he needed the money because he was sick and out of work, admitted yesterday trying to extort $10,000, police reported.

He was trapped by chemicals which had been placed on a dummy package. Chief of Police Jam Purcell said. These chemicals glow under a special light. Colgan admitted the extortion attempt when his hands glowed in the test, Purcell said.

Purcell, quoted him as saying he telephoned the offices of Fred Meyer, Inc., a grocery and variety chain, Monday threatening that one of the stores would be bombed unless $10,000 was left in a package at a suburban street intersection.

A package filled with cut paper was left as directed. Somehow Colgan managed to pick it up and get through a line of police who had surrounded the area, Purcell reported.

Colgan, fearing one of the police had seen him at the scene, walked into the police station yesterday, hoping he could explain away his presence in the area, Purcell said.

We quoted Colgan as saying his car had run out of gas. But after six hours of questioning, Colgan broke down and admitted he had telephoned the extortion demand, picked up the package and burned the contents when he found it was only paper, Purcell said.

He was booked on a charge of attempted extortion under $10,000 bail.

Disabled May Be Eligible For SS Help

Seriously disabled people who formerly worked in employment or self-employment covered by the social security law should get in touch with the social security office by June 30 Scott Webber, social security district manager, announced today.

Webber pointed out that people who have been totally disabled for six months or longer, and who worked in employment or self-employment covered by the social security law for as many as five years out of the ten years before they were disabled should get further information about this law. Active military service and employment in the railroad industry may count toward the needed amount of work. By applying to have their social security earnings records frozen, disabled people may prevent loss or reduction of future benefits.

Some people now receiving old-age insurance payments or who will become eligible for old age payments in July were disabled for long periods before they reached 65 and are still disabled. They may start getting larger payments as of July and will get them more promptly if they file an application by June 30. If the disabled person dies after June 30, the disability freeze can protect his family's rights to survivors payments but only if he had applied for it before death. For this reason, it is important for every person who meets the requirements for the "freeze" to apply for it by June 30.

Webber emphasized that the law protects the social security rights of a worker who is suffering from prolonged total disability but does not pay cash benefits to him before he is 65.

The address of the Sedalia social security office is 605 South Massachusetts, in the Central Business College Building. If a disabled person is unable to call at the office, he may telephone or someone else may call for him.

Atomic Test Put Off At Survival City

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. — Bad winds and clouds forced an other postponement today of the much-delayed open atomic shot. The prospect for firing tomorrow was not regarded as favorable because of an approaching storm off the California coast.

More morale briefings are expected for civil defense workers with the return of Val Peterson, director of the Federal Civil Defense Administration. Many CD workers have already left.

Boy, Playing Hooky, Fires to Frighten Boy and Kills Him

DALLAS — Tommy Rendon Jr., 9, was walking home from school in an area of west Dallas where, outlaws Sam Bass and Clyde Barrow roamed in other generations.

A rifle bullet kicked up dust in front of little Tommy.

A second shot sent him pitching backward. Doctors said he died instantly, a .22 slug through his heart.

Officers who investigated yesterday spied a second-story window screen ajar about two inches. In the apartment they found a 12-year-old truant with a rifle. At the police station he said he played hooky from school and watched a television show. Tiring of the TV, he searched out a rifle he had been forbidden to touch and loaded it.

He fired out the window at a utility pole, he told police, and later saw Tommy, whom he didn't know, walking across a nearby field. He said he decided to frighten the younger boy by firing as close to him as possible. He said he didn't intend to hit him.

Police turned him over to juvenile authorities. Tommy's funeral was to be planned today.

Rev. Campbell Shows Holy Land Scenes— Members of ABWA Entertain Their Employers at Dinner

The dinner meeting of the American Association of Business Women was held Tuesday evening at Bothwell Hotel, when members of the organization entertained their employers and other guests.

The tables were centered with yellow vases holding white carnations, on either side of the association colors of gold and black were favors for the women guests. A large arrangement of white carnations, on either side of the association colors of gold and black were favors for the women guests. A large arrangement of white carnations, on either side of the association colors of gold and black were favors for the women guests.

Miss Anna Margaret Wingfield, president, conducted the meeting, which was opened with invocation by Miss Ella Peithman.

Jack Delph, principal of Mark Twain School, expressed appreciation on behalf of the bosses for the invitation to attend the meeting and for the American Business Women's Creed which pays tribute to them.

Mrs. Melvin Dexheimer presented a musical program with Sedalia's young accordion player, Mary Alice McLaughlin, playing two numbers, "Melody of Love" and "Peg O' My Heart." Mrs. Frances Spans, then sang two numbers, "When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day" and "The Good Shepherd," with Miss Clara Phillips as accompanist.

The meeting then was turned over to Mrs. J. H. Rabourn, who introduced the speaker of the evening, the Rev. Bird Campbell, personnel of the General Council of the Assemblies of God and chaplain of the Council from Springfield, Mo. He was formerly pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Sedalia.

Rev. Campbell, who has traveled all over the world told the group he loved Sedalia, having lived here 11 years. All over the world, he said, he had found people who, when he had said he was from Sedalia, would reply, "Sedalia—I have been through there—that is the town with all the beautiful trees," or often they would comment that they had been to Sedalia and found the people so friendly.

He went on to say that now as he walked down the streets of Sedalia he saw more and more people he did not know, and he was sorry because he liked to see people he knew and speak to them—but to see so many people you do not know is a sign of progress, Sedalia is growing and that, of course, is good.

Rev. Campbell told of the growing of religion all over the world and through this Communism is beginning to wane, like Hitlerism and Fascism. That, he said, is because these isms are each a thought, religion is not a thought, it is a reality and that is why it lives.

After a short talk Rev. Campbell showed colored pictures taken on one of his tours and in his

PRESIDENT GREET'S "AMERICAN MOTHER" — Mrs. Lavina Christensen Fugal of Pleasant Grove, Utah, recently named the American Mother of 1955, is greeted by President Eisenhower during a visit to the White House. Mrs. Fugal, a 75-year-old widow, has eight children. In the center is Sen. Arthur Watkins of Utah.

Mother of Year Advises Parents: Use Discipline

NEW YORK (AP)—A bit of advice to parents everywhere from the American Mother of the Year:

"Love your children with all your hearts; love them enough to discipline them before it is too late."

Also, says 75-year-old Mrs. Lavina Christensen Fugal:

"A child should know discipline by the age of 3. Forget little things they do wrong that are not important. Praise them for important things, even if you have to stretch them a bit."

Mrs. Fugal, a hard-working farm widow from Pleasant Grove, Utah, was interviewed yesterday at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel during a series of activities for her that will last through Friday.

Close to tears, she said of her family life:

"I've had more blessings than it seems to me one person can stand. And for this I am indebted to Our Heavenly Father. We've had trials, financial difficulties, disasters—our one resource has always been Our Heavenly Father."

Mrs. Fugal, a deeply religious Mormon, is the mother of four sons and four daughters and grandmother of 34.

She will receive her award as American Mother of the Year from the American Mothers Committee at a luncheon Friday.

The walkout forced the company to shut down the final assembly at Chrysler division's Jefferson plant an hour later. About 1,500 second shift workers were sent home.

Laborer Kills Self After Shooting Three In Battle With Police

SOUTH RIVER, N.J. (AP)—A 20-year-old discharged laborer shot and seriously wounded three women relatives early today and then killed himself during a gun battle with police.

Alex Miedzwiadok was found dead on the floor of his mother-in-law's house with his unharmed 10-month-old daughter by his side.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Kucharik, 43; sister-in-law, Margaret Kucharik, 50; and wife, Sonja, 18, lay wounded in the tear gas filled home. They all were in fair condition at Middlesex General Hospital.

Miedzwiadok exchanged shots with police on two occasions during the night, when finally trapped and surrounded in the house. He shot the three women while exchanging shots with police.

Miedzwiadok was separated from his wife.

Complete Removal Of Soviet Tank Monument

BERLIN (AP)—U. S. Army engineers completed the dismantling of the Soviet tank memorial in the American sector today and turned it over to the Russians.

The memorial was defaced by irate Germans and the Soviets agreed to its removal. They built a new one, symbolic of the first tank to enter Berlin 10 years ago, just inside their zone.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT!

Filgetting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infect one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Industry Hike Expected Soon Despite Talk

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—All that talk about American industry being overexpanded—is it outdated already?

Some top industrialists are saying so and calling for further increases in the capacity of mills and factories to keep in step with the increased consumer demand they foresee.

Just one year ago it was fashionable in some circles to say that the great postwar spurt of building new plants and buying new equipment had given the United States a production capacity well in excess of current civilian consumer demand.

It would be quite some time, they said, before civilian demand—if unsupported by an additional huge defense production—would catch up.

But now plans for future expansion are being announced by the corporate leaders in many industries. The basic industry steel is a good example.

Between 1950 and 1954 it increased its capacity by one fourth. Last year industry leaders were saying that present capacity of 124,300,000 tons a year should be enough for at least five years more.

This week the nation's steel mills are set to turn out 2,328,000 tons, according to the American Iron & Steel Institute. This would top the record set in March 1953.

And today at least five of the top men in the industry are on record as saying another round of building more mills and upgrading old equipment must be started.

The reason: the steady increase in the nation's population and—more importantly—the increase in the standard of living. Steelmen believe Americans will be buying more cars, more appliances, building more offices, stores and homes, more bridges, schools and highways.

Benjamin F. Fairless, in his swan song as he steps down from the chairmanship of the board of U. S. Steel, says his company to keep in step must add more than one million tons of new capacity each year.

Eugene G. Grace, chairman of Bethlehem Steel, the nation's second largest producer, says his company should add eight million tons of capacity in the next 10 years.

E. T. Weir, chairman of National Steel, says the industry is using all of its first-class equipment today and now faces the problem of further development.

W. W. Sebald, president of Armco Steel, and Avery C. Adams, president of Pittsburgh Steel, join in the call for another round of expansion.

This expansion of basic steel production capacity will be accompanied by upgrading facilities for making finished products.

Natural Color
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Judy Johnson, 8, has a flock of rare Araucana chickens. They lay eggs in pastel shades of blue, pink and green. Each hen produces a single color egg.
Judy's father, C. E. Johnson, farm editor of the Grand Rapids Press says the chemistry of the hen, not the feed, determines the color of the eggs.

Sues Atom Commission For Radiation Effect

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A $75,000 suit on file today charges that the Atomic Energy Commission's 1953 atomic tests subjected Mrs. Martha Sheahan to radioactivity which caused a cancer to grow on her face.

Mrs. Sheahan and her husband Daniel previously filed a suit seeking $450,000 from the government and charging that their home at the Groom mine, 25 miles from Yucca Flat, had been made uninhabitable by radiation and Air Force bombs.

The Groom mine is located at the borders of the Nevada Air Force gunnery range. Since the 1953 AEC tests the Sheahans have moved to Las Vegas.

The Jet stream is a current of air moving from 100 to 500 miles per hour about eight miles above the earth.

High Prices on Eggs Expected This Year At Least by July

High egg prices are expected later on this year. Good prices are expected by July, and a University of Missouri economist believes unclassifieds may reach 50 cents a dozen at the farm before the year is over. Of course, the price of grade A eggs will be much higher.

These higher egg prices will be brought on by a severe cut-back in the number of hens on farms. During the early spring months of 1955, many Missouri farmers sold their laying flocks. And the number of chicks being started on farms in Missouri and surrounding states this spring will be down about 20 per cent from last year. Even if chickens are ordered now, they will not come into production much before December.

According to the economist, producers should cull their flocks carefully this spring, especially those producers who have not ordered enough chicks to fill their laying house for the coming winter. With the expected high price of eggs, even some of the older laying hens will be profitable this fall. However, a non-producer is never profitable.

Marketing Important In Balanced Farming, Says Lawrence Agent

This story of how good marketing plays an important part in balanced farming comes from John Hubbard, Lawrence County balanced farming agent. L. L. Olson, a member of Lawrence County's Balanced Farming Association, has recently been selling his 1954 wheat crop at 41 cents per bushel more than he was offered at harvest time. This extra 41 cents a bushel has paid for a new thousand bushel steel bin he bought last June.

Olson filled the bin with wheat direct from the combine while other harvest. At that time, local elevators were paying $1.80 per bushel, and often a lot of precious time was wasted waiting in line to unload.

Olson has recently hauled his

Persons Interested Can Join New Group On Swine Production

Persons interested in the production and consumption of pork in Missouri recently formed the Missouri Swine Producers' Association. Primary purpose of the organization is to be a working force for the swine industry by uniting all segments concerned with the production and marketing of pork.

Among the committees appointed to work on various phases of the program include a market committee, retail committee, promotion committee and a show and wheat to the elevator while other work has not been urgent. It's been bringing $2.21 a bushel. So in a mere nine months the new bin has paid for itself, and it should give another 30 to 40 years of dependable storage.

fair committee. One committee will be working with junior 4-H and FFA hog producers to promote swine projects in these two organizations. Another committee was formed to work with the University of Missouri College of Agriculture and Extension Service in furthering the University's research work. Projects to be studied by the association in the future include breeding stock production, disease and commercial hog production.

The Missouri association will become a part of the National Swine Council which is made up of state organizations. Anyone interested in the group's intentions is urged to join and take an active part in the program.

Officers of the Missouri Swine

Producers' Association are: J. M. Garner, president; Mendon; W. E. Smith, vice-president; Nelson; and Jack Kroeck, secretary-treasurer, Jefferson City.

Announce New Way to Relieve Pain of Arthritis and Rheumatism Without Pills!

Greaseless, odorless cream penetrates deep—speeds up flow of fresh, rich blood into sore areas—actually helps drive away pain-causing congestion and pressure.

New York, N. Y. (Special)—Science has now developed an odorless, greaseless cream that acts in a new way to bring a new kind of relief from pains of arthritis, rheumatism, and muscular aches and pains. This new cream relieves these pains without the need of taking pills and other internal medicines that may only upset the system.

Gently rubbed into painful areas, this cream penetrates so deep and completely that it actually vanishes. Quickly a comforting feeling of warmth develops and the whole painful area takes on a pleasing glow. This is striking evidence of the power of this cream to penetrate quickly and stimulate the circulation of the blood. This glow illustrates how it speeds up the flow of fresh, rich blood into the sore areas and actually helps drive away the pain-causing congestion and pressure.

146 British and French doctors are so satisfied with this new help for patients suffering from arthritis and rheumatism that they have prepared written reports of success based on hundreds of cases. Further, one of the leading arthritis and rheumatism clinicians in the United States has now confirmed the findings of these doctors.

Now for the first time this remarkable cream can be obtained without a prescription at drug stores throughout America—under the name Infrarub. The price of Infrarub is only 98¢ for a large tube. Infrarub is backed by the amazing guarantee that sufferers from the pains of arthritis, rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, neuralgia or muscle injuries or sprains will get hours and hours of comforting relief or their money will be refunded in full.

Screw Worm Remedy

Franklin EQ 335 Screw Worm Remedy is produced from the formula developed by the Department of Agriculture after considerable experimentation in the Texas area. This formula utilizes the qualities of Lindane for its action as a quick killing agent. In combination with pine oil Lindane is carried to all parts of the wound to exert its action. Pine oil is somewhat irritating to screw worms, causing them to wriggle from the wound to leave it clear for quicker healing. Pine oil has bacteriostatic values as well.

This smear offers definite advantages over other smears... It is cleaner to use, leaves a softer covering over the wound, thus aiding in more rapid healing.

Altogether it is the product of choice!

S-C Tigers Humble Kemper Tracksters 77-41 At Stadium

Local Thinclads Win Last Dual Meet of Season Tuesday; Kemper Man Breaks Stadium Discus Mark

The Smith-Cotton Tigers jumped on the Kemper Military Academy in a dual track-field meet at the Jennie Jaynes Lewis Memorial Stadium Tuesday night and won 77 to 41. A new stadium record was set in the discus when Williams of Kemper threw the discus 135 feet 11 1/2 inches breaking the record set by Wallace of Kemper who originally held the record set in 1954 at 134 feet 6 1/2 inches.

Charles Van Dyne won two firsts and the two Tiger relay teams took the mile and 800-yard relays. Van Dyne won the 120 high hurdles in 1:53.3 and the broad jump with a distance of 20 feet 2 1/2 inches. The mile relay was won in 3:45 and the 800 in 1:37.8.

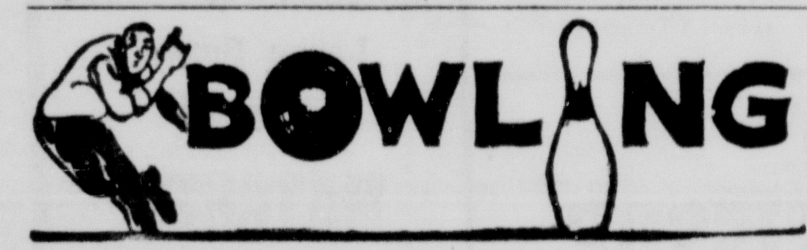

Robinson-Panther Bout Tonight Another Step Toward Shot at Title

DETROIT (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson's comeback campaign completes its first full circle tonight and the former middleweight champ still is trying to get it straightened out on the road to another title shot.

Robinson is scheduled for 10 non-television bouts against Garth Panter of Salt Lake City, a familiar TV performer who has lost six of his last seven starts.

In his heyday Robinson could have whipped Panter with one hand. The result tonight is a little less certain.

Robinson opened his comeback at Detroit's Olympia Stadium in January with a six-round kayo of Joe Rindone. He's back in Detroit after a loss and two decisions in three more bouts. Nothing in the four fights has indicated that Robinson has regained any considerable part of the skill he displayed while ruling the world's welterweights and middleweights.

COME LONG WAY TO GO LONG WAY

Sports Roundup-- Dodger Beatings Pull Down Nat'l League's Old Crows

NEW YORK (AP)—American League club owners must be snickering these spring days as they see seven teams in the rival circuit writhing under the lash of the Brooklyn Dodgers. They hope, no doubt, that there is nothing temporary about the lack of balance among the Nationals.

For too many years to suit the American Leaguers, their own runaway races have played to steadily dwindling attendances while the senior division pulled in the fans with one thriller right after the other, specializing in last day finishes. This time they see a chance that the leagues' roles will be reversed, with the Dodgers pulling far away from all pursuit while several American League clubs take turns making runs at the Cleveland Indians.

And never think that the National Leaguers are not beginning to worry about it, especially since the Brooks have proved that they can manhandle the Western clubs, including Milwaukee, in stretching their phenomenal record to 16-2 in recent days. About the only hope left is that Walt Alston's streaking team will come down to earth when it opens its first extended road trip Friday, or, long range, that hot weather, if it ever comes, will take some of the sap out of such veterans as Roy Campanella.

A's Break Even At Fifth Place With 8-9 Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kansas City's Athletics, four games out of the American League lead in fifth place, are moving in on the break-even mark.

The A's turned back Baltimore last night at Kansas City, 4-3, on the strength of a three-run home run by Bill Wilson in the eighth inning. The victory gave Kansas City an 8-9 record in the league.

Wilson's smash over the left field fence knocked Irv Palica out of the box and handed him his third defeat against one victory.

Baltimore scored two of its runs on homers with the bases empty by Hoot Evers and Chuck Diering. Palica and rookie Art Ceccarelli had duelled through seven innings with the Orioles leading, 2-1, on the two homers before Ceccarelli went out for a pinch hitter.

Wilson's homer followed a single by Bill Renna, a walk to Jim Figgins and a force out. Ed Bartsch got credit for his second win against no losses in relief for the A's.

He needed the help of Tom Gorman to stop an Oriole rally in the ninth when one run came home on a triple by Willie Miranda, a walk and a double-play ball.

The St. Louis Cardinals had an open date yesterday before opening a series with the National League-leading Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbetts Field today.

Walz and Rayl were the big guns for Sedalia, with Rayl blasting a homer in the first to lead off. Wayl knocked in the winning runs in the seventh frame.

Ida Hughes, Town and Country shortstop, made several outstanding plays at that position.

The T & C girls next game will be with Kansas City, the leading team in this area. It is scheduled for Sunday at 16th and Center at 8:15 p.m.

Town & Country Girls Defeat Columbia Team

Town and Country Girls' Softball Team defeated the Columbia Semons' Furniture Store team 18 to 15 after a close game Tuesday night with the lead exchanging all the way.

The Sedalia girls racked up 21 hits with three errors, with the Columbia girls getting 14 hits and four errors.

Walz and Rayl were the big guns for Sedalia, with Rayl blasting a homer in the first to lead off. Wayl knocked in the winning runs in the seventh frame.

East Sedalia Baptist Team to Practice

The East Sedalia Baptist Church softball team will have a practice session Thursday at 6:15 p.m. at the Center Park. All positions are open and anyone interested to play will be welcome.

Kansas City's Attendance Breaks Record

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics, a Philadelphia baseball firm for more than half a century, needed only 14 playing dates to attract more fans than the same club did in the Quaker City all last season.

Last night's 15,953 fans who watched the Athletics' 4-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles brought the home attendance to 306,474. That's 1,808 more than the 304,666 who paid to see the A's in Philadelphia for 77 games last year.

Present for the first showing of such teams as the New York Yankees, Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox couldn't be supplied with tickets.

An appreciative fellow, Carroll noted weather had smiled on baseball here for the first time since he broke into the game as business manager of the old Kansas City Blues of the American Association 15 years ago.

"In 15 years we got our first break in the weather," Carroll said. "It's rained all around us, just before and just after a game, but the fates have been kind to us all the way."

"Interest in cities and communities throughout the surrounding states continues at a high pitch. We'll do well over a million. Don't worry about that."

Although Carroll didn't say it, the immediate goal is the 1,060,910 drawn by Baltimore last year. The Orioles, one year removed out of St. Louis, got in all their 77 games last year. They've lost three to the weather already this season.

Kansas City's top attendance figure thus far was 33,471 for the A's second game with the New York Yankees. The stadium's actual seating capacity is approximately 31,000. Attendance has fallen under 10,000 only once—for an afternoon tilt with Boston that drew 9,557 paid.

Valley Dumps Jewell

MARSHALL, Mo. (AP)—Missouri Valley defeated William Jewell 73 1/2 to 62 1/2 in a dual track meet here yesterday. High point man for Valley was Tom Wyatt with 11 1/4 Jewell's Bob Carson scored 10 points.

State Saddle Club Approves Plans For State, District Show

The Missouri State Saddle Club Association met at the court house Tuesday evening with representatives from 26 clubs present.

F. H. Necessary, vice-president from Lee's Summit, presided over the meeting which approved plans for the fourth annual state and district show. The program and rules were discussed.

The state show was set for September 18 with Sedalia as the probable site. Two new clubs were admitted to membership. They are the Ozark Roughriders from West Plains and the Blackwater Trail-riders.

Babe Ruth Gets Players To Fill Gaps

Sponsors, Managers Meet With Agent To Line Up for Season

The sponsors and managers of Babe Ruth teams met with Players Agent Frank Hannigan Tuesday night and purchased players to complete their teams for the 1955 season. Fifty-nine boys were sold by auction by the player agent, 30 of these being 13 years old, as each team must have five 13 year old boys on its roster, according to Babe Ruth rules.

Many of the boys sold have not completed their requirements to play Babe Ruth baseball, the majority because they have not had a physical examination. All boys who have not passed a physical examination are asked to be examined and turn in a certificate of physical fitness to their manager this week so they can practice. No boy will be allowed to practice or participate in any way in Babe Ruth activities until he has passed a physical examination.

The following is the roster of the teams. The managers will be allowed to make trades or release players and bring others up from the player pool until the 15th day after the season play is started.

Smith-Cotton Golf Team Wins CMC Title At Hannibal

Tiger Golfers Take First Place In Conference Over Four Other Schools; End Season Undefeated

Smith-Cotton Tiger golfers finished up their season undefeated when they clinched first place in the Central Missouri Conference meet at Hannibal Tuesday over four other schools.

The Sedalians toured the par 33-33 layout for 18 holes for a spectacularly low team total of 283. Placing second, 20 strokes behind the locals, was Columbia with 303. In third spot was Hannibal with a 305 total; Kemper Military Academy fourth with 321; and Mexico Military Academy fifth with 382.

Smith-Cotton's Gilbert Roberts took individual medalist honors of the meet with a scorching 32-34-66. Following close behind, with 36-31-67 was Bob Martin of Columbia. David Kennedy, another Columbian, had the third best individual score of 33-33-68.

Playing as an unusually well balanced team, other members of Sedalia's CMC champions carded the following scores: Vic Van Dyne, 34-38-72; Ronnie Turner, 38-34-72; and Clayton Craig, 35-38-73.

This is the first time in many years the Tiger golf team has swept through the season without a loss. The locals won three dual meets before their Conference victory, which were: S-C 473, Columbia 481, at Columbia; and S-C 323, Kemper 329 at Kemper.

Columbia's other team member scores were Bob Jackson, 39-38-77, and Harold Miller, 45-46-91.

For Hannibal, Binnis, 34-35-69;

Hill, 37-35-72; Jacobson, 40-38-78; and Schweitzer, 43-43-86.

Tear Gas Ends Hopes to Keep Wife at Home

BETHEL, Vt. (AP)—A barrage of tear gas ended the holdout of gun-toting Justice of the Peace Manuel Miller, 47, who stood off federal and state authorities for 12 hours yesterday in a futile attempt to keep his wife out of a mental hospital.

Miller and his wife, Lucille, 44, parents of three children, surrendered last night in their gas-filled home—she to face confinement in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D.C.; he to face as yet undetermined federal charges.

The mild-mannered Miller, a school committee member and former selectman, began the siege at 10 a.m. EST, when he refused admittance to U.S. Marshal Dewey H. Perry bearing a federal order for Mrs. Miller's commitment.

Mrs. Miller, publisher of a mimeographed anti-Communist leaflet called The Green Mountain Rifleman, was adjudged insane in Federal Court at Burlington April 18 as the outgrowth of an indictment charging her with influencing young men to evade the draft.

Throughout the day, Miller, armed with a rifle, defied all efforts by authorities to remove his wife from their two-story frame home. He ordered out Vermont Public Safety Commissioner William H. Baumann at gunpoint.

After 12 hours siege authorities fired tear gas shells through downstairs windows of the Miller home. Ten minutes later, the couple appeared at an upstairs window.

Miller crawled through the window onto a porch roof.

"All right, fellows," he called. He threw his rifle to the ground. State troopers swarmed on the roof and handcuffed him.

Mrs. Miller collapsed across the window sill, overcome by gas, and was taken unconscious from the roof.

After doctors revived her on the lawn she smiled at her husband. He smiled back.

Mrs. Miller was taken to Rutland Hospital where Dr. L. Crawford Russell said she had suffered no ill effects from the gas barrage.

Miller was taken to Windsor County Jail. U. S. Marshal Perry said charges probably would be lodged against him.

Although no shots were fired during the 12-hour siege, Miller repeatedly told besiegers:

"I will prevent any intruder from crossing my threshold."

Two hours after the siege began, the Miller children, David, 11, and the twins, Helen and Josephine, 10, came home from school, ate lunch and went back.

When school was through for the day, however, authorities sent the youngsters to nearby private homes, where they remained for the night.

Mrs. Miller spent the siege making and answering phone calls. She talked willingly over the telephone with newsmen, telling one caller that her husband "has got a lot of ammunition. We can hold out a long time."

When Mrs. Miller appeared to answer the indictment charging her with influencing young men against the draft, Federal Judge Ernest W. Gibson ruled her courtroom behavior indicated a psychiatric examination.

She was sent to Brattleboro Retreat, a mental hospital in Brattleboro, where psychiatrists adjudged her insane.

St. Louis Bishop Asks De-segregation Of Parish Churches

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Bishop Arthur C. Lichtenberger of the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri, pointing to integration of public schools, has called for an end to racial segregation in churches.

"There has been no organized resistance to admission to schools from which they formerly were excluded and it does not appear likely that there will be any serious difficulty as integration continues," he said of the Missouri situation.

The bishop presented his views before the 116th annual diocesan convention yesterday.

"Is it possible to speak of our public schools and say nothing of our parish churches?" the bishop asked. "If we welcome desegregation in the schools as an opportunity for health and healing, must we not also confess how much we have failed to use the opportunity God has given us in the church to do the truth we proclaim: that all are one in Christ Jesus?"

Communists Inspire Wildcat Bus Strike

LONDON (AP)—A wildcat bus strike fomented by Communists threw London's transport system into confusion today. Subways were heavily taxed.

Another unofficial work stoppage in coal mines around Doncaster, halted the flow of coal from that Yorkshire region—Britain's largest coal-producing area. More than 44,000 miners were off their jobs in a piecemeal pay dispute.

The London strike involved nearly half the city's 30,000 bus drivers and conductors. Almost 3,000 of the 5,744 red double-deckers were crewless. The stoppage was called to protest new summer working schedules which will cut down overtime earnings.

Temperatures Leveling Off; Thunderstorm

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Temperatures which climbed to summer levels in many parts of the mid-continent for two days this week appeared headed for near normal marks today.

Fairly pleasant spring weather was the outlook for much of the eastern two thirds of the country.

The cooler air which kept temperatures on the chilly side in the Rocky Mountain and Great Basin regions moved eastward across the plains and into the Mississippi Valley. Temperatures which were in the 90s and upper 80s Monday dropped 20 to 25 degrees yesterday.

But readings were in the 90s in many Midwest areas yesterday, with a record of the date in Chicago with a 92.

Thunderstorms were reported early today in a belt extending from central Wisconsin southwestward through eastern Iowa and into northern Missouri. Light rain continued in eastern Montana and parts of North Dakota. Fair weather prevailed in most other parts of the country.

Severe thunderstorms, with tornado winds, struck sections of northeast Iowa and northern Wisconsin yesterday. The storm which hit Delaware County, in northeast Iowa, caused heavy property damage and injured one person. An estimated 2 to 3 inches of rain fell in 20 minutes.

Winds of between 78 and 83 m.p.h. unroofed the new Bethel Lutheran Home for the Aged at Viroqua, Wis., damaged other buildings, disrupted utility services and toppled trees.

Army Cut-Back Plans Ignored By Subcommittee

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House Appropriations subcommittee has rejected a move aimed at avoiding a planned cut of 75,000 in Army strength during the coming fiscal year.

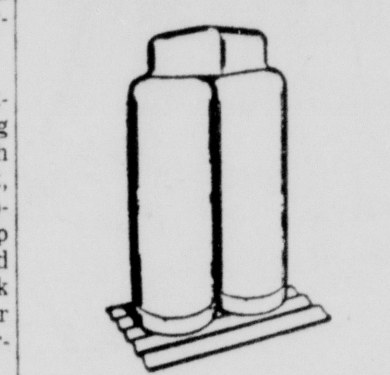

Rep. Flood (D-Pa.) disclosed today he had failed in an effort to get the subcommittee to add about 750 million dollars to funds for the Army during the year starting July 1. He told newsmen he would try again tomorrow when the full Appropriations Committee meets to consider a multi-billion-dollar bill to finance the armed services.

If necessary, he said, he will carry his fight to the House floor.

The administration's defense policy—based on greater reliance on air power and new weapons—contemplates scaling down all of the armed services except the Air Force. Plans call for the Army to be down to 1,102,000 men by June 30, 1956.

Motor Co., Fourth and Osage, reported the loss of a dealer's license plate D-222-P, believed lost between Kansas City and Sedalia.

Hoodlum Dies After Ambush At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The second of a pair of hoodlum brothers who dreamed of a Southwest crime empire died yesterday of wounds suffered in an ambush.

Apparently the assassination of Cecil Green, 39, was another in the growing list of unsolved Southwestern gang killings which police have termed "revenge murders."

Green was shot down in almost the same fashion that his brother, Hollis Delois Green, 31, died on Christmas Eve, 1949. Cecil was cut down as he and fellow mobster Lreoy (Tincy) Eggleston, 49, pulled up at a drive-in cafe Monday.

Eggleston said men who stepped from three parked cars shot Green as Eggleston rolled to safety behind Green's Cadillac.

Hollis Green was ambushed by a shotgun-wielding assassin who caught him as he left a West Dallas night club.

Cecil Green, Eggleston and Harry Huggins, 39, were charged in the slaying of oil millionaire William P. Clark, 63, shot to death in his Fort Worth mansion, May 19, 1953. Charged as accomplice in the slaying was Clark's blonde wife, Mary, 43, who Clark accused in an ancient petition of "luring me into marriage" for money.

Green died without regaining consciousness. If Eggleston knows the killers, he is not telling.

Neither has Eggleston given any reason for the mysterious rendezvous at the drive-in cafe. He just says they were going there to "shoot the bull."

The Green brothers, starting as petty thieves, were reputed specialists in holdups of dice games. Hollis dealt sometimes in narcotics and white slavery.

Soybeans Are Erratic In Fertilizer Action

Soybeans are erratic in their response to the direct application of fertilizer. Because of this variation, application of fertilizer to the land is generally preferred on some prior crop which gives more consistent response than do soybeans.

The ability of the soybean to bloom and set new pods over a period of several weeks is a reason why highly fertile soils with a slow release rate of that fertility, such as on the gumbo soils, produce good crops of soybeans but poor corn as the corn needs lots of fertility in the short period of silking and tasseling.

Lime will likely increase soybean yields some five bushels per acre if the land is low in calcium and quite sour. Like other legumes, soybeans should be inoculated. On the average, application of phosphate and potash where needed can be expected to give a three to five bushel increase in fertility. These applications should be plowed under.

Demos Hold Power in Farm Price Supports

WASHINGTON (AP)—Northern big-city Democrats with large numbers of consumer constituents appeared to hold the balance of power today as the House neared a showdown on farm price supports.

It was a repeat performance of last year's farm battle, save that the House this time is being asked to reverse last year's administration victory establishing a program of flexible price supports on basic crops.

Both sides concentrated their attention on the consumer and members from large city districts in the debate preceding a final vote scheduled for late today. Democrats generally supported the bill; Republicans were mostly lined up against it.

Before the House was a bill which would scrap the administration program of supports ranging from 82½ to 90 per cent of parity, and substitute for it a program of rigid supports at 90 per cent of parity in effect until this year.

Parity is a legal standard designed to afford the farmer a fair return on his crops in relation to his costs.

To assertions that farm income was down 22 per cent since 1951, Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts replied that "these depressing conditions all come about while price supports were rigidly pegged at 90 per cent of parity."

Rep. Cooley (D-NC), chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, said it is not true that farm state members are in "some kind of a vicious coalition" with organized labor.

Cooley hotly rejected suggestions that farm leaders plan to repay organized labor for its support by voting later for an increase in the federal minimum wage.

Demo Meeting Causes Furor At Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than a dozen Democratic governors stayed over after an administration-sponsored governors' conference today to talk over party organization and federal-state problems.

Highway and mental health legislation were high on the agenda for the first public session arranged by Democratic leaders. Discussion of 1956 campaign plans and intraparty affairs was listed for a later closed session with national committee officials. The party sessions will wind up tomorrow.

Republicans and Democrats rowed over the purpose of the Democratic meeting coming on the heels of the two-day all-governors' briefing conference concluded yesterday.

Two Democratic governors—Averell Harriman of New York and Frank Lausche of Ohio—differed sharply over the propriety of the Democratic conference. Harriman stayed for it and Lausche didn't.

All of the nation's 27 Democratic governors were invited by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler to today's and tomorrow's sessions. Fourteen said they would stay, with three more possible. Others said they had state business to return to or didn't reply to the invitation.

GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall issued a statement last night accusing Butler of trying to make "a political sounding board" out of the conference called by President Eisenhower.

"This is another inept blunder by Mr. Butler," Hall said. "He puts every Democrat governor on the spot."

The Democratic committee replied that it had planned the meeting of Democratic governors for several months, and decided to hold it following the White House conference to "save the governors the time and expense of making a special trip."

List Seven Ways For Big Profits In Egg Market

If you are selling eggs on a graded market this summer, here are some suggestions that will help you get more top quality eggs on the market at higher prices. Producers who have followed these seven recommended practices have been able to average 90 per cent Grade A quality eggs.

1. Confine the laying flock to the laying house. This is a sound, time-tested practice known to result in greater production and more high quality eggs. However, when you do this, make certain the house is properly ventilated and not overcrowded.

2. Provide clean dry floor litter. 3. Provide a suitable nesting material. Sawdust, shavings or ground corn cobs generally make better nesting material than straw. There should be one nest for each five hens.

4. Gather eggs frequently, at least three times a day. The longer eggs remain in the nests the more they deteriorate as heat is the greatest enemy of egg quality.

5. Collect eggs in wire baskets as they permit free circulation of air to cool eggs rapidly. Tests have shown that eggs in wire baskets cool in six hours compared to 12 hours in a metal pail.

6 & 7. Cool eggs before packing and store in a cool place with proper humidity. These two practices

Corn Prices Expected To Stay Fairly Steady

Corn prices are likely to remain steady in the near future with only moderate seasonal increases in prospect. According to a University of Missouri agricultural economist, farmers fed five per cent more corn in 1954 than was produced in the 1954 crop. If this rate of feeding continues until August, some corn would need to be removed from government storage.

This would require a price of about $1.70 per bushel. The economist believes that such an increase in price will reduce feeding rates to such an extent that little or no corn will be drawn from government storage. He says corn prices will increase moderately later in the season.

go hand in hand. The first step is to remove eggs to a cooling room as soon as they are collected. Tests at the University of Missouri last summer showed that a cool cellar is satisfactory for storing eggs if they are marketed once a week during cool months and twice a week during the hot summer months.

If your cellar is dry, try using a sandbox egg cooler on the floor and add water to it daily. Larger producers may want to consider installing a refrigeration room in the laying house for convenience and more definite control over temperature and humidity.

You can follow these seven prac-

Mendes-France Makes Attempt at Comeback

PARIS (AP)—Former Premier Pierre Mendes-France took a step on the comeback trail today. He scored an initial victory in his battle for control of the Radical Socialist party.

Party leaders, meeting at the start of a one-day special convention, voted — unofficially reported 96-87 — to put the discussion of a shakeup in the party machine on the agenda. Followers of Mendes-France have been demanding reorganization.

With just a little extra effort. And with today's demand for quality eggs, you can be assured that you will receive more money for your eggs this summer and fall.

Lefmann Assumes Duties at Goodyear

V. E. Lefmann, East St. Louis, Ill., has assumed the duties of manager at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., store in Sedalia replacing R. H. Ward, who has been transferred to a Kansas City store.

The transfer was effective May 2. Lefmann has been with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. for several years in the retail sales branch.

He is married and will soon establish a residence in Sedalia with his wife, Darylene, and two children, Thomas, 5, and Susan 4.

He Doesn't Believe Sharing Can Be Mapped Out Precisely

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (P)—Who sews your buttons? Who darns your socks? Who sends your shirts to the laundry?

If a man does these things himself, presumably he is a real fine modern-minded husband and a great companion to his wife. But if he expects his wife to do them, he is presumably a brow-beating oaf who is secretly looking for a mother, not a marital partner.

So some present-day sociologists and marriage counselors seem to hold. I say they're full of twaddle. There has been a horrible spate of magazine articles lately on the "new freedom" of wives, the "new partnership" in marriage, the "new sharing of responsibility" between husbands and wives.

Much of this wide-eyed tripe is the sheerest drivel. It operates on the theory that (1) a home is hopelessly old-fashioned if the husband goes out and brings home the bacon, then rests contentedly in the living room while his wife cooks it—but (2) everything is palsy-walsy in a home in which papa opens a can of beans for dinner while mama cheerfully busies herself painting the kitchen ceiling.

Well, I just don't believe it. And I'll bet 10 million American husbands (and their wives!) agree with me.

The latest of these little up-to-the-minute matrimonial essays really has me riled. It found in a survey that many young U. S. wives were neglecting their husbands, but held sociologists thought this just dandy as conditions have changed, and a man no longer has the right to expect from his wife the personal attentions and services his father received from his mother.

The article expressed surprise but no disapproval over the fact that a poll of college girls taking a course in marriage and family life showed only half expected to darn their future husband's socks, sew on his buttons, see that his shirts were laundered and his suits kept cleaned and pressed.

To me this is saddening. Do can improve her husband by neglecting him while she pursues her own interests outside the home.

Such a concept doesn't exalt or free womanhood. It degrades womanhood. No victory outside her home can ever repay an honest wife for a failure within it. Most women realize this instinctively.

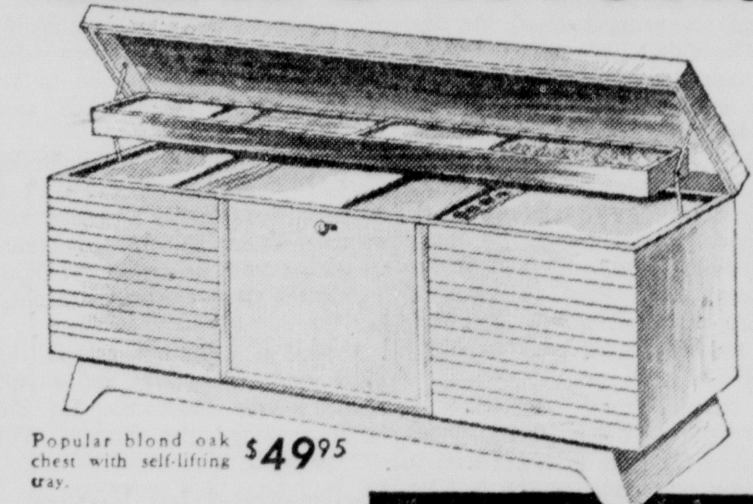

A feminist who insists that her husband help with the cooking and sew on his own buttons purely as a matter of principle, or because she is too lazy, defeats herself on a picayune battlefield. She may gain a mouse—but if it's a man she's got, she may lose him, too. There are an amazing number of girls left who don't regard a kitchen as a penal institution or button sewing as a form of slavery.

As a matter of fact, anybody looking either for a 50-50 partner or a fulltime chum ought to form a business corporation or join a social club. Marriage is a mystic, longtime exploration. It should be entered into only by people looking for something else—men who yearn for a wife, women who yearn for a husband.

But maybe I'm an old stick-in-the-mud. Perhaps under the "new partnership" theory a young married couple, before having a baby, should sit down and ask each other, "Who'll do the knitting?"

O'Connor, Bing Reunion In New Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (P)—Last week Paramount saluted the reunion of Donald O'Connor and Bing Crosby after 18 years of going their separate ways.

The studio ran off the "Small Fry" number from their 1938 musical, "Sing You Sinners," plus "You Gotta Give the People Hoke" from the 1955 "Anything Goes."

In the earlier film, Donald was 12, with an Irish face and soprano singing voice. In "Anything Goes," he is nearing 30, handsomer and a baritone. In both numbers, he seems to be an accomplished, highly talented performer with complete sureness.

Donald doesn't give that impression in person. His conversation is tentative, his manner offhanded. He hasn't adopted the false modesty of some stars. Although he has been a performer for most of his years, he is still amazed and modest about the honors that fall his way.

Seeing the old movie caused him to reminisce about his days as a child actor. He recalled playing with his family at the Irish Village of the Chicago World's Fair in 1933. He was 8.

"I can remember there was a midget show next door," he said. "I used to go over and play with the midgets between shows." He remembers "Sing You Sinners" vividly. He also remembers his salary: $350 a week. He's now earning $200,000 for "Anything Goes."

"I did a lot of pictures at Paramount," he said. "I was Cary Cooper as a boy in 'Beau Geste' and Fred Macmurray as a boy in 'Men With Wings.' But 'Sing You Sinners' was the only musical I ever did in those days.

"I think that was probably good for my career. People don't remember me as a child star. That's pretty hard for some kids to overcome when they grow up."

Speed Law Is Evaporating---

Statistics indicate excessive speed was the cause of 45.7 per cent of deaths on highways during 1954 and 43.1 per cent of persons injured, according to the Travelers Insurance Company's 21st annual safety booklet. Speed alone resulted in 12,380 deaths and 659,000 injuries.

Americans generally, and Missourians particularly, fret about the possibilities of impending war and the terrible toll of lives that would certainly occur. Yet they seem unconcerned about the daily slaughter on our highways.

Even the Missouri legislature cannot become animated over such a thing as regulating the speed of vehicles on the highways. At least not up to now—and the session is about over. But the gentlemen over there in Jefferson City have become overheated about filled milk. That bill has died and been resurrected no end, but to date no one has produced statistics concerning mortality over filled milk or unfilled milk. But a bill designed to make the highways safer by defining a legal speed limit seems to have been buried.

Admittedly a law isn't going to stop speeding any more than it does murder—

Intensive Vaccine Study Should Allay Fear

The announcement that some youngsters who were inoculated with Salk polio vaccine, as produced by a particular firm, have since contracted polio should be taken in calm stride by the American people.

By and large, the parents who first allowed their children to participate in the great test of this vaccine responded with firm good sense. That same attitude is called for now.

The authorities do not believe the vaccine is at but a speed law offers a foundation on which to establish restraints other than charges of careless and reckless driving which require factors other than speed in arrests.

The present legislature's lack of interest in a speed law measure appears to stem from lack of agreement on what figure to set as a speed limit. If such is the case then let the solons set upon a medium or compromise figure and try it out for a change. If it doesn't work, then try another method, but for Pete's sake let Missouri have a speed law with teeth in it and enough State Highway Patrolmen to enforce it — which is another thing Missouri needs, more Highway Patrolmen.

Although the present legislature may not do anything about a law regulating speed of vehicles on the highway, and the proper means to enforce it, the demand for such legislation persists, will be revived, and sooner or later be recognized in later years for what it is worth today—a measure to reduce the slaughter on Missouri highways.

In the meantime the specter of Death is having a chuckle over the neglected speed law.

Shy Man With Shaggy Hair Resists Time

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

Five minutes after the great brain of Albert Einstein was still, all its fabulous perceptions of the nature of the universe were erased. Luckily for the world, the greatest of these already have been engraved on the tablets of science. They will endure through centuries.

And so will the memory of this towering figure, whose incomparable achievements in mathematics and theoretical physics seem sure to place him alongside Newton, Euclid, and other scientific giants.

Einstein thought and worked on a mental plane so high that few men could understand his more advanced theories. Yet most people, without grasping the significance of his contribution to mankind, somehow realized that he was important.

They did appreciate, too, that some of his notions of the nature of matter and energy led to the concept of vast energy compacted within the tiny atom, and that this theory laid the foundation for the present development of atomic energy.

In this respect, though other men who followed worked out the specifics that made atomic force a practical reality, Einstein was the father of the atomic era.

There was deep irony for him in this fact. He was a refugee in America from the anti-Jewish fanaticism of the Nazis. He abhorred violence and was a genuine pacifist. It pained him to see the colossal power of atomic energy turned to destructive aims.

Occasionally, small-minded men in this country, which was glad to give him refuge for more than 20 years, dared to equate his pacifism with some kind of subversion. Evidently they feared he worked an insidious influence upon younger scientists who sat at his feet.

They never quite mustered the nerve to call him before some congressional committee. It is good they did not. They would only have humiliated themselves and their country.

In truth America and all the free world were fortunate that Einstein chose to make this nation his refuge home. Here he was free to think without political direction or control. Here he was able to go on adding to the great pyramid of his knowledge.

When Einstein, as a young man, turned from his job as a clerk in the Swiss patent office, the world gained a scientist of heroic stature. Now its loss is deep as this shy man with the shaggy hair, the floppy sweatshirt and shiny trousers passes from the scene at 76.

His indifference to clothes symbolized his independence of material things. His only needs were a pen and pad. With them he could log the great explorations he made in the realm of the mind. And what a boundless realm his mind was!

The Washington Merry-Go-Round—
Ike Jokes About Puerto Rican Assassins

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Gov. Luis Munoz Marin, first Puerto Rican ever elected governor of Puerto Rico, and the best governor the island has ever known, was conferring with President Eisenhower regarding various Caribbean problems. Among other things he doesn't want too high a minimum wage fixed for Puerto Rico and pointed out that the present average wage in the island — 58 cents an hour — is higher than the minimum wage in England, France and Italy.

He also urged President Eisenhower to help set up a Caribbean Commission including every British, Dutch and French possession in the Caribbean as well as Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, in order to secure better cultural and economic cooperation in that area.

The President was sympathetic to both ideas. During the conference they got to talking about the Puerto Rican Nationalists who had attempted to assassinate President Truman and had shot several congressmen.

"I was driving through New York," remarked the President, "when a friend pointed out a building which he said was the headquarters of the Puerto Rican Nationalists."

"That must have been the jail," replied Governor Munoz, "because all I know are in jail."

"I don't see why they should want to shoot me," continued Eisenhower jokingly. "I have announced that I was for independence for Puerto Rico was independence. You're the man they should shoot, not me."

"They've already tried," replied the governor, a little ruefully, doubtless having in mind the occasion when the Nationalists stormed his home about a year ago.

NOTE — Governor Munoz Marin is getting excellent cooperation from both President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Interior McKay in handling Puerto Rican problems.

Behind Formosa Switch

Here's the inside story of how the State Department issued a statement one day that the USA would not discuss a cease-fire with Red China without Chiang Kai-shek; then three days later said we would discuss a cease-fire without Chiang Kai-shek.

This was not a minor snafu perpetrated by a minor State Department official. Nor was it entirely the fault of Herbert Hoover, Jr., the under-secretary of state who originated the first statement. He phoned a copy to Gettysburg, talked to the President about an hour on the phone.

Later, two things happened. First, Senator George of Georgia got a tremendous ovation when he told the American Society of Newspaper Editors that we should talk to the Red Chinese about peace no matter what the circumstances. White House staff members, always sensitive to public opinion, were present. Impressed by the ovation, they reported it to Ike.

Second, the State Department received a four-page confidential cablegram from Premier Mohammed Ali of Pakistan, who visited this country last year, is a good friend of the USA.

Ali vs. Nehru

At the Bandung conference, Red China's tough-talking Premier Chou En-Lai had two conferences with the two rival leaders of what was once British India, now are Pakistan and India.

According to the secret cable reports of U. S. diplomats, Chou's talk with idealistic Premier Nehru was a flop. Nehru tried to be the peace-maker of Asia, but got cold-shouldered.

Though Nehru wanted the Red Chinese leader to guarantee the neutrality of all non-Communist Viet-Nam, Chou would guarantee only the small and unimportant states of Laos and Cambodia. Implication was the Reds would penetrate the rest of Indo-China — namely, the much richer, more powerful Viet-Nam now undergoing revolt.

With Nehru's rival, Premier Mohammed Ali of Pakistan, Chou was more cooperative. Perhaps he was deliberately wooing the more belligerent, more pro-American Moslem nation; playing it off against passive, neutral Hindu India.

Anyway he told Mohammed Ali, according to the four-page cable Ali sent Dulles, that Red China wants the two off-shore islands of Quemoy and Matsu as the price for a cease-fire in the Formosa Strait.

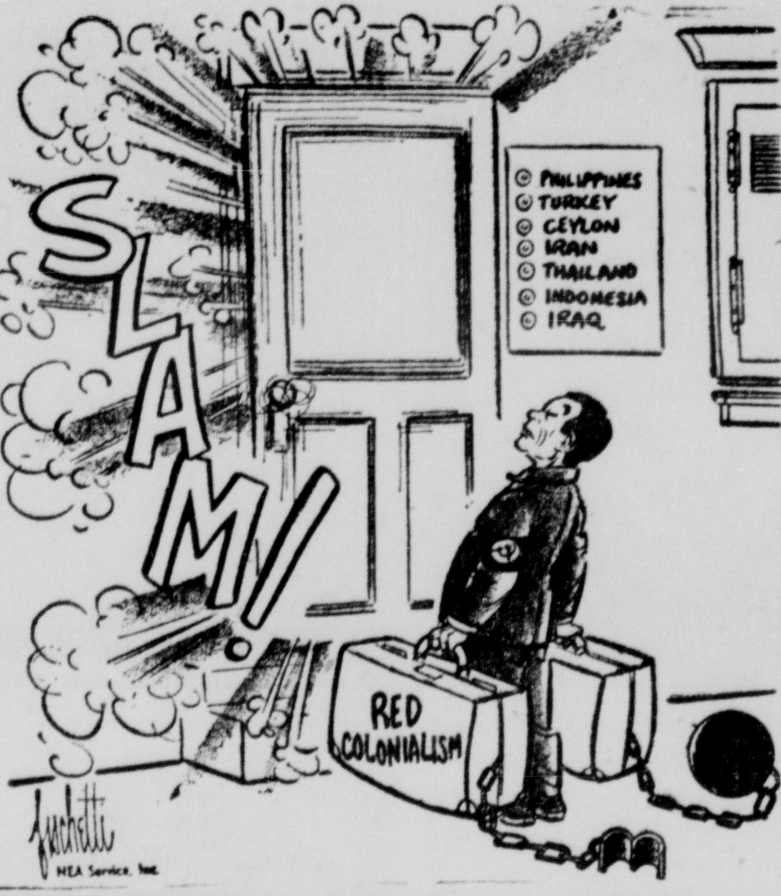

Ali also reported he was convinced Red China really wants to end the Formosa crisis. He said Chou complained the Allied blockade of China is keeping his country from buying strategic materials and he indicated that this ban would have to be lifted before he agreed to a cease-fire.

It was after the receipt of this four-page cable from Premier Mohammed Ali that Dulles advised Ike that the original Eisenhower policy of insisting that Chiang Kai-shek sit in on any cease-fire talks be reversed — regardless of the ire of Senator Knowland of California.

Dr. Jordan Says--
Most Successful Treatment
Of Cataract Is Surgery

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Occasionally one runs on to a person who rushes to have surgery done at the slightest provocation and seems to enjoy the attention received from doctors, nurses, family and friends. More common are those who resist the idea of an operation except under emergency conditions—even when this is far and away the best treatment. An example of the latter is a correspondent who writes "I am getting a cataract on my left eye and wonder if there isn't anything to cure it other than an operation."

Before discussing cataracts in general it should be said that there is no generally accepted medical treatment for a cataract. There are no drops or medicines which can be put in the eyes or given by mouth or injection which most doctors feel will prevent cataract, delay its progress or improve one already formed. This does not mean that such a preparation may not be discovered sometime but only that so far there is nothing of the kind which has received general medical acceptance.

Cataracts may be present at birth or in youth but certainly they are much more common in the middle and later years of life. Usually the reason for this is not clear but sometimes the development of cataracts may be associated with presence of some disease such as diabetes.

The first symptom of a cataract is likely to be blurring of the vision. Objects such as buildings, trees, or mountains will start to look hazy or as if they were in a thin cloud. This is because the lens of the eye has become clouded and like the lens of a camera, it must be clear to reveal a good picture. The image recorded on the brain is like that which passes through the camera lens to the film.

At first the sight is only slightly affected. The amount of clouding depends on the change in the lens of the eye, and the blurriness or cloudiness of vision increases slowly.

The little boy had a head of hair that never seemed to look combed, his cap always seemed to leave him a tousled head no matter how nice he combed it before he left. His mother wanted to get him a crew cut but he didn't want a crew cut. He wanted nice, beautiful hair with a wave in it, like his grownup brother has.

"See, mother," he said, "my girl says there is a little wave right there in my hair." The mother couldn't see the wave but if he thought there was one there that was good.

However, she made a bargain with him. She would get him a little comb and if he would keep his hair combed he wouldn't have to have a crew cut. He was very thrilled and took the comb with him to school but somehow he just couldn't manage with that cap. Every time he took it off he mussed up his hair and she was ashamed of him.

And so, regardless of the fact that he didn't like a crew cut, his girl didn't like a crew cut and he had a little wave that both he and his girl could see very plainly, mother took him down and got him a horrible crew cut which made him very unhappy. He would so much rather be handsome with unruly hair and an imaginary wave than to be neat looking with a crew cut. But he is just too little to do anything about it.—H. L.

DEATH OF A LEGEND

NATIONAL repudiation followed for the Pinkertons. A wave of public indignation denounced the "bomb-throwing" incident as an "inexcusably horrible crime."

What was it they threw into the Samuel living room?

One answer is supplied by William Lewis, a personal friend of Frank James, writing 50 years later:

"Frank James himself, supported by Sheriff Timberlake, stated there had never been a bomb exploded in his mother's house. The James boys were believed to have been in the house, but they were not. They had been there, but the instinct of the part-ridger had sensed the hunter from afar and they had fled."

"The law officers and members of the Pinkerton staff who surrounded the house had prepared for an emergency in the Samuel house. They carried with them what was known as a flare. It was a lamp with a hemispherical bottom of cast iron. The top was of brass and two tubes about six inches long carried the wicks."

"This flare, then, the detectives lighted and tossed through a window. Immediately the interior of the living room was illuminated and the occupants were palpable targets. Dr. Samuel, who found himself measurably aided in his daily coming and going with a cane, beat at the light with his cane and then pushed it into an open fireplace full of dying embers where it exploded."

The other side is represented by an earlier interview with George Hite, the James family grocer, fellow clansman, Jesse's lifelong friend and defender.

"Jesse James went to Chicago to kill Alan Pinkerton and stayed there for four months but he never had a chance to do it like he wanted to. That was after Pinkertons made a raid on his mother's house, blew her arm

Red Chinese Play It Smart

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The Red Chinese, by design or necessity, have played it pretty cute since the Korean War. It's almost as if a public relations man had told them:

"Don't push your luck. Next time don't just jump into war. That's the hard way. Next time give yourself time to see what American public opinion is. That may let you know how far you can go, and what you can get, without war."

The Communists, by stopping United Nations forces in Korea, built up their prestige and self-confidence. But they lost heavily in men and supplies.

Their lack of readiness may be the real reason they haven't started shooting again. But, at the same time, Korea gave them a sharp insight into American thinking.

The Americans not only wanted to get out of the Korean War but were then and thereafter reluctant to get into war in Asia, where they could strip themselves bare in men and resources.

The Chinese Communists' first move after Korea was to help Ho Chi Minh and his Communist-led Vietnam whip the French in Indochina. They could have sent armies in to help him.

But Secretary of State Dulles warned — or maybe it wasn't a warning, because his language was so vague — that the United States would get into the Indochina fighting if the Red Chinese marched in.

Instead of sending in troops, the Reds pumped supplies and expert advisers into Indochina. Ho Chi Minh smashed the French. The MAY is a beautiful month in Texas no less than Old Missouri. Collins County, northwest of Dallas, was young-green with the coming curl of the buffalo grass. Watching the slow drift of the high clouds, the young rider on the steps of the JD-Bar bunkhouse shifted his glance from them, narrowed it along the distant bend of the Collins City Road.

Shortly, he arose, nodded in Texas no less than Old Missouri. "Company, Cole. Where's Jim?"

"Up to the main house with the old man." The "old man" was J. D. Coleman, blood-cousin and sometime hideout operator for his clan's half of the James-Younger Wheatsack Combine.

Ten minutes later, Cole had followed the arroyo to its intersection with the Collins City Road.

Here a clump of chinaberry trees shrouded his ambush, and here he waited, carbine unslung, gray eyes narrowed. His sudden order boomed in mock-anger.

"Throw up your hands, you Clay County son of a gun!"

The horseman wheeled his mount, blue eyes wide.

"Cole! You mangy old outlaw! How you been—?"

"Dingus! Dingus! How you been?"

On May 12, three days after Jesse's arrival at the JD-Bar in Collins County, five men held up the San Antonio stage, 24 miles north of Austin, Texas. They were, we are told, "big rough-looking men, riding fine blooded horses. They wore face-masks of bandanna calico."

Loretta Young Shuns Form In TV Role

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Loretta Young is nearing the end of a second successful season on television with a show that ignores the formula of the usual film series.

Other TV stars appearing on a weekly basis stick to one role for the star and the same basic situation. Loretta plays a different role and uses a different situation each week, with no effort at continuity. Each of her Sunday night shows is complete in itself.

One result is that the viewer is less apt to tire of the show. He may not like this week's episode but can tune in next week knowing it will be entirely different.

Fact is, some of Miss Young's programs are oversentimental and sticky sweet. But she has turned in challenging performances, as in her recent "Dateline Korea," in which she played the role of a hard-boiled woman newspaper correspondent.

She also has played schoolteacher, nurse, woman executive, office girl, test pilot's wife and many other roles. Inevitably there have been two or three strongly reminiscent of her Oscar-winning part in the movie "Farmer's Daughter" in 1947, in which she took the part of a maid of Swedish ancestry.

Miss Young, 41, is one of the most successful former movie stars to come into television. Her show last Sunday completed the new episode filmed for the current season, which ends in early June. However, she will resume production in late June to accumulate a backlog for the new season, starting in late August.

Dulles Says Doubtful If Chou Will Back His Offer to Talk Back His

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said today Secretary of State Dulles has indicated he doubts Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai will follow through on his offer to discuss Far Eastern tensions.

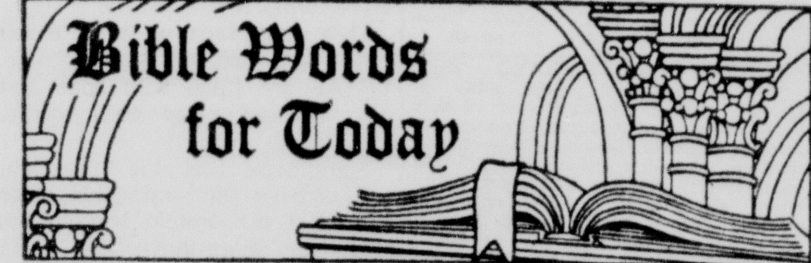

Speculation that the United States and Communist China might be able to get together on some kind of cease-fire in the Formosa Strait increased sharply 10 days ago when Chou expressed willingness to undertake direct talks and said China did not want war with this country.

"I doubt that anything comes of Chou's offer to talk," Smith said in an interview. "The impression I get from Secretary Dulles is that he doubts it too. But the secretary matched the offer for direct conversations with Chou so that the Communists couldn't say we were unwilling to discuss a settlement."

Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Asst. Secretary of state Walter S. Robertson report to President Eisenhower this afternoon on their talks in Formosa with Chinese Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-Shek.

Age Cuts Tax

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Antique motor car collectors in Montana got a break from the Legislature—no longer do they have to buy license plates every year. As long as one owner has what he considers a collector's item, he need buy only one plate. The only other time the car needs another license plate is when it gets a new owner.

PSALM 19:14—"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer."

This prayer of the Psalmist is a prayer we all need to pray day after day. So often our words are unkind, unclean, untrue, uncalled for. We shall do well to ask the Lord to help us that our words may be acceptable in His sight, clean and kindly, truthful and courageous.

The Psalmist knew that the words of our mouth were important, but so are the meditations of our hearts. The Bible tells us, "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." Certainly we need constantly to pray that the Lord who is our strength and our redeemer will help us that the things we think about may be acceptable in His sight. We need to pray often, "Create within me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within me, O God."

As we pray, "Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in thy sight," it is good to know that God is our strength and our redeemer. We do need a strength beyond ourselves to help us live and think and act as we ought, and when we fail and fall short, we need One who will redeem us and help us start over again. Such is the assurance we find in this Psalm. It is not only an earnest prayer, but also an affirmation of faith that God will continue to strengthen and help us as we most need, as we seek so to live that the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts and the deeds of our lives may be acceptable in His sight and of use in His Kingdom.

Humorist Thinks We Moderns Are Too Desperately Serious

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—If you are worried about your health, here is a consoling thought—you probably won't die laughing.

Laughter never has been a leading cause of death in any civilized country, and the danger of it knocking you off in this country is diminishing every year.

"We're a sober lot—and getting soberer," said Charles Morton, a thoughtful humorist who never lets the foibles of a confused world disturb his own dry good cheer.

"It is becoming more difficult for us to laugh at ourselves. Everybody's terribly cautious. They're afraid of offending someone. As the money stacks get higher and our enterprises larger, everything seems to become desperately serious."

"This is too bad. There is enough that is upside down in this world to warrant anybody having a good big belly laugh."

Morton, associate editor of the Atlantic Monthly, is one of the few remaining masters of the light article, a deft humor form brightened by such predecessors as Stephen Leacock and Robert Benchley. After surviving the feminine indignation aroused by his book on "How to Protect Yourself Against Women and Other Vicissitudes," Morton has come out with a new and equally funny guidebook to current "stuffed."

Town With Teeth

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Just how many false teeth are lying around the streets? Police are asking. Officer G. A. Shealy recovered one set which a soldier lost down a gutter drain after he coughed at the wrong time. Meanwhile, however, there was a news story about the soldier's plight and a woman reported she had found his teeth. Ownership of the second set has not been determined.

Legend has it that potato chips started at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., when an angry cook tried to serve French fried potatoes that were too thin to eat.

Corey Talks About Tour With Douglas

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Wendell Corey could write a book about his tour with "Caine Mutiny Court Martial." Suggested title: "With Douglas in the Deep South."

You'll recall that Paul Douglas, who played Captain Queeg in the troupe, was reported to have popped off in Greensboro, N.C., that "The South stinks. It's a land of sordidly and segregation."

The casual remark to a Greensboro Daily News reporter started a chain reaction. Producer Paul Gregory canceled the tour, declaring that Douglas' remark had so infuriated the South that business would be poor. Douglas denied he issued the quote and sued Gregory for a million dollars. Actors Equity placed the actor on probation for a year because of his conduct on the tour.

How did the hassle look to an innocent bystander?

"Naturally, the rest of the company wasn't happy about the remarks," said Corey. "But I'm not sure what effect they had on business. There was a little resentment in Greensboro before we left. But we went on to good business in places like Atlanta, Jackson and Birmingham—and you can't get much deeper South than that."

"Actually, the people in the South have a lot more sense than we give them credit for. A lot of the folks down there took the incident in good humor."

Corey explained that the company had swung up to Pittsburgh when the cancellation came from Gregory. Other Southern dates remained to be played. Then the producer was threatened with law suits by civic groups and others who were sponsoring the canceled dates. He whipped up a company headed by William Bendix to fulfill his commitments.

His comment about Douglas: "He was a very effective performer on the stage; everything was professional. We weren't exactly friendly, but we weren't unfriendly either. In San Francisco, Steve Brodie and I would ask him to have a drink with us. He said no, he'd rather be alone. So we never bothered him after that."

Army Cracking Down On Tokyo 'Business'

TOKYO (AP)—The Army has cracked down on the naughty, noted street corner known as 4th and Y.

The downtown Tokyo corner is a respected business street by day, a lighted entertainment area by night—and in the wee hours a hangout for hundreds of prostitutes.

The Army this week posted white signs saying, "U.S. personnel not permitted to loiter in this area."

All Scared

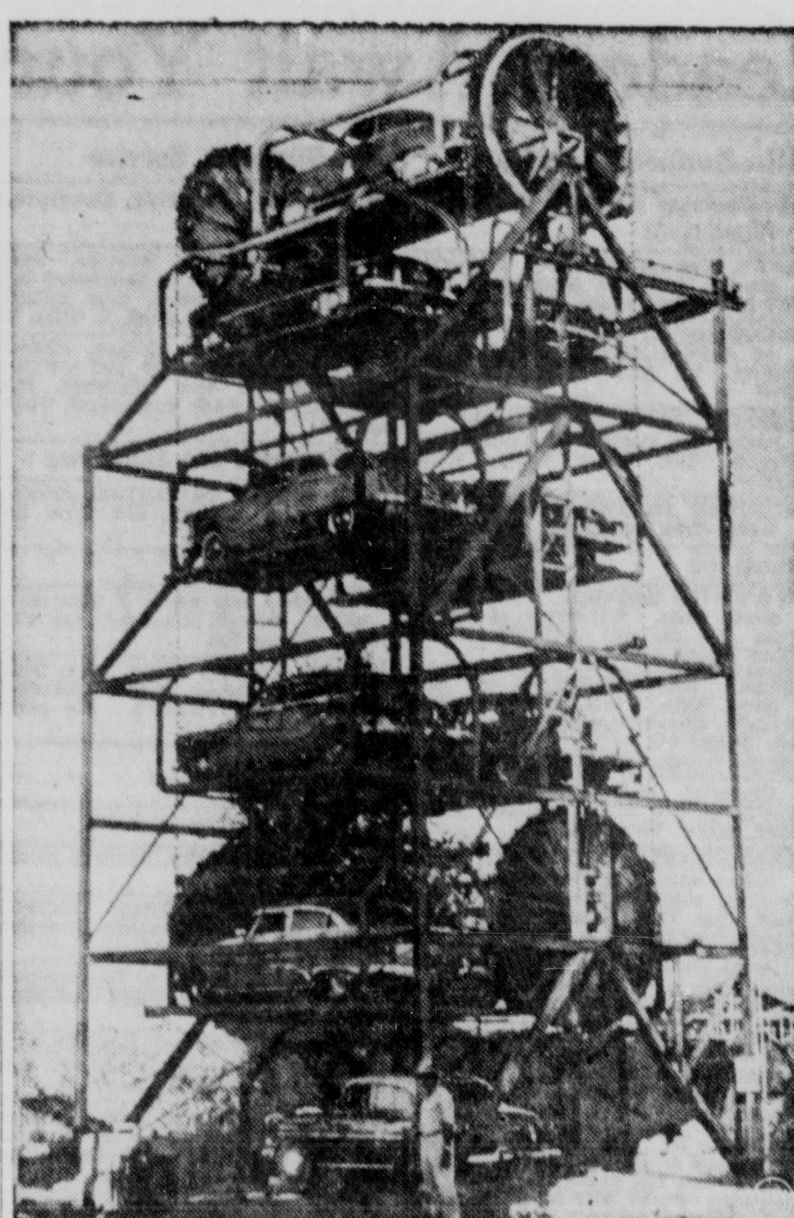

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP)—Lieutenant Floyd L. Doss, of Lynchburg, one of the few men to bail out of a 600-mile per hour B-47 jet bomber, admits it was scary plunging into midnight darkness. But Doss and two other crew members were not the only ones who were scared.

Two men were at a small lake where the plane fell, preparing for some night fishing.

"When they saw the bomber, with all its landing lights on, come swooping down at them, they first jumped into the water and then took off through the woods," Doss said.

Doss and his two companions escaped with minor injuries, but Doss spent over 6 hours in the top of a South Carolina pine tree before National Guardsmen got him down.

House Passes Anti-Pollution Of Streams Bill

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—In the first night meeting of the year, the House passed and sent to the Senate a water pollution bill designed to keep stream contamination from getting any worse.

One sponsor said there was a time when Missouri had the cleanest streams in the country. But that time has gone. Now, he said, expanding industry and mushrooming city populations have produced a tremendous pollution problem.

The sponsor, Rep. Robert C. Smith Jr. (D) of Boone County, said the bill must pass this session or one of these days the state will be in such a position that a tough bill will be necessary.

The House killed a bill to establish a state parking garage in Jefferson City to ease the parking problem around state buildings. But the 70-49 vote was so close sponsors were expected to plead for reconsideration. It takes 79 affirmative votes to pass a bill in the House.

Also killed was a bill to permit candidates for public office to run without party label. Sponsors said it would help the two-party system.

But opponents won 32-72 by declaring they were opposed to such clique or "buddy-buddy" systems of voting.

One bill passed and sent to the Senate would let an applicant for old age assistance benefits to get state help upon applying instead of waiting until investigators checked his need.

Books With Teeth

SALINA, Kan. (AP)—Some bookworm was really getting his teeth into tomes at the Salina Public Library. He left a pair of uppers on a shelf behind a row of books.

Quite a few toothless citizens appeared to claim the dentures, the library said.

Ike Confesses Soil On His Farm Eroded From Long Abuse

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower disclosed today he is bucking a serious soil erosion problem on his Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

The President told a group of farm editors a scientific study showed three-quarters of the top soil has been washed away.

Eisenhower told the group he became interested in soil conservation years ago through the activities of his brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, long a specialist in farm problems and now president of Pennsylvania State University.

He said one of his reasons for buying the Pennsylvania farm was a determination to leave the soil in better condition than he found it. And he said he found it in bad shape from many years of "abuse."

The President spoke informally in the White House rose garden while greeting about 75 members of the American Agricultural Editors' Assn., holding its biennial meeting here.

Nelson Eddy Is Natural For TV Role

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Casting of Nelson Eddy in the lead role of "Desert Song" for NBC's color spectacular next Saturday night sounds like a natural.

It would seem to be right down his alley, in view of his starting performances in nearly two score light opera movies and his long career in opera and concert. But the tall singer and actor, still handsome at 53, is as nervous as a novice.

"I've never done a major show on stage or television, and motion pictures are entirely different in technique," he explains. "And on the concert stage I was out there all alone. But this is something for which my background hasn't prepared me."

"They tell me I'm trying too hard," he said during a break in rehearsals.

"I always wanted to start small in television, on some local station or with a 15-minute program, until I learned it," he said. "But my agents balked, with fees in mind no doubt. They said it had to be in an important spot. Now here I am in the biggest spot of all."

"I wish I had won my argument three years ago and started small, and worked my way up," he said.

"I have a feeling now that it might open up a whole new field for me. But first I have to see whether I can do it, what the producer thinks, and whether the TV public likes me."

Until now, Eddy's television has been confined to occasional guest appearances.

Another Oregon Store Threatened With Bomb In Extortion Plots

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Fred Meyer, Inc., Portland's largest independent supermarket chain, was the target of a $10,000 extortion threat Monday.

Police Chief James Purcell declined to say whether any money was paid. However, a package which was opened placed at a contact point in the northeast Portland suburbs was missing.

Two high school students, age 17 and 18, were captured speeding from the contact area. Purcell withheld their names. Purcell said, after questioning them for several hours, he didn't know if they had any connection with the extortion.

The threat was that one of Meyer's huge grocery and variety stores would be bombed.

Meyer and his wife are touring Europe.

The threat was the latest in a series that has plagued this city since April 15, when a bomb was exploded in a large Portland department store in an extortion attempt.

Since then schools, business establishments and households have been threatened.

Speculation Worries Stock Study Group

NEW YORK — Stock speculation that might get out of hand and undermine our good times worries the staff of the Fulbright stock market study committee.

But traders in Wall Street seem to fret more about the daily quota of cheer and gloom in the corporate news.

Both of these point to nervousness. In Washington it's fear that the better-than-expected good times may go to the nation's head and foster gambling. In Wall Street it's nervousness lest the surprising bull market may have carried stock prices near their peak.

This nervousness shows up every time an occasional sour earnings report wedges into the parade of glowing profit statements from most companies. Price of the stock of the less fortunate company swings widely, and this often spreads to the market as a whole.

Or a corporation doesn't come through with the stock split, raised dividend or merger which rumor had predicted. A sharp break in the market follows.

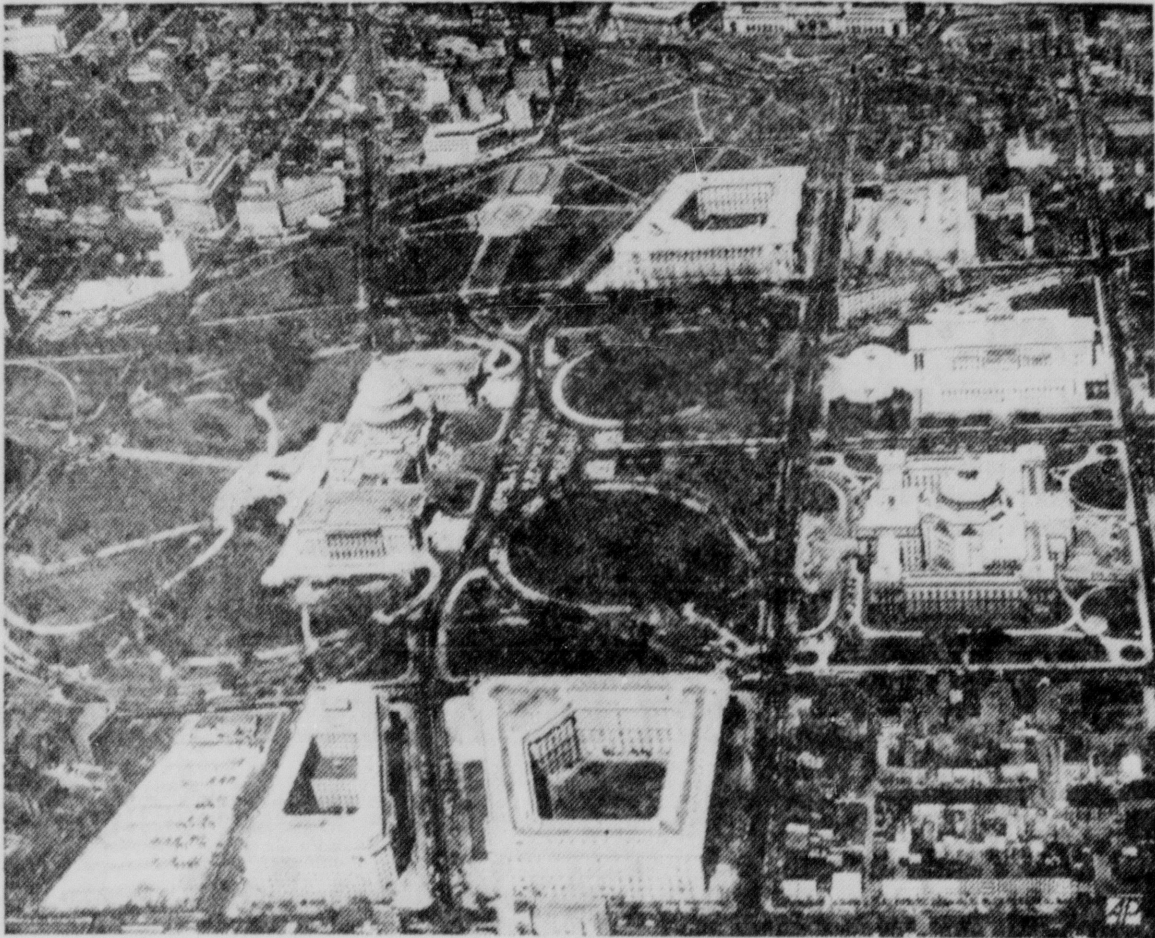

These sudden and severe swings, either up or down, in stock prices worry many in Washington. These observers interpret the market's nervousness and fluctuations in recent weeks as evidence that speculators may be taking over from investors.

The report by the staff of the Senate Banking Committee, which Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) heads, puts the cause for worry this way:

"When more and more people turn to the stock market for a quick profit rather than investment income, with an increasing reliance on credit, speculative excesses are likely to develop."

Should these excesses "push prices up to unsustainable levels," the report stresses, there could be "sharp reversals which can shake business confidence."

Beyond this worry over possible excesses to come, and too great use of credit in playing the market, the Fulbright staff finds little in the present situation that can be compared with the 1929 market that preceded the big crash.

Voters Elect Mayor; Kill Town Charter

KILL DEVIL HILL, N. C. — Mrs. Emily Mustian, elected mayor of Kill Devil Hill yesterday, would take office today—but today this town ceases to be a town.

Voters, while electing a mayor, repealed their town charter.

Property owners, peeved because tax rates had jumped 200 per cent since incorporation in 1953, led the fight to kill the charter.

Kill Devil Hill is the site of the Wright brothers famous first powered flight.

Explain Polio Vaccine Shots To Residents

By Mrs. Douglas Crank

SWEET SPRINGS — Parents of first and second grade pupils met in the study hall of the high school building Tuesday evening, April 26, to have explained to them any questions about the Salk vaccine, by Dr. Paul Roberts and Dr. Charles Worley. They explained that when the forms were sent to the parents that only about 50 per cent had signed and they felt parents should know more about the inoculations.

The first inoculation was given Thursday evening. The second shot will be given in four weeks making the date after school is out. The third and last shot will come seven months later. Some schools are using the five - week method but Dr. Worley explained that it proved more effective using Dr. Salk's method.

It was also explained that all three shots must be taken or the immunization lasts for only a short while. Several children did not receive their vaccine at this time due to whooping cough. These children have been asked to wait until they are completely well.

The last vaccine shot will cost $1.20 per child as there is not enough money to give all three free of charge. In this batch there was enough for only 45 but it may be possible to obtain enough for children from one to high school age in the next shipment. The next group receiving the vaccine will be teenagers as the doctors explained children should come first. Expectant mothers are in the next group. These shots will be given when available at $10 for all three.

Sweet Springs Seniors Attend Picnic at Park

The Sweet Springs seniors have been invited to attend a barbecue given by Rose and Buckner at the Indian Foothill Park in Marshall, May 5, to which all the Saline County senior classes will attend. Besides the seniors, the superintendent of schools, Winston Morlan, and his family, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Koester, principal and his family and the senior sponsor Miss Lois Spears will attend.

The F.H.A. will present a style show May 12 in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend. A reception will be held for the parents after the show in the home economics room. Mrs. Keith Tolson will be in charge.

The junior and senior banquet will be held Friday, May 6. All faculty members and families are invited to this formal affair. Mothers of the juniors will be in charge of the food and the serving will be done by the sophomore class.

There has been a change in the Gusher this year which is usually distributed toward the end of the year. In order to give the senior class an opportunity to add anything they may wish about their trip to the Lake of the Ozarks, it will be published covering Sept. 1 to the end of May. The book will be ready for the students in August.

Senate Passes Tax Reduction On New Cars

JEFFERSON CITY — A bill to excuse a new car buyer from paying the state sales tax on the trade-in value of his old car passed the Senate after a bitter fight Monday.

Missouri now collects its two per cent retail sales tax on the full purchase price of a new car. Opponents of the controversial bill estimated it would cost the state up to $5 million a year in revenue but other estimates ranged as low as $2 million.

The vote sending it to the governor was 19-13. It came after backers of the plan had beaten down a series of amendments on the claim that any change sending it back to the House now would defeat the bill.

Opponents based their argument on the fact the state is looking for new sources of revenue to meet an expected deficit of around $18 million and to pay $22 million more a year in state aid to schools. They said this is no time to cut taxes.

Sponsors said it was unfair to subject new car buyers to what they called "double taxation."

At times the debate got loud and bitter. At one point opponents were accused of trying to start a filibuster—using up so much time the sponsors would have to get on to other business without a vote.

The bill has been before previous sessions but never got thru both houses.

Before getting stuck on the sales tax problem, the Senate renewed the life of its criminal law revision committee for another two years. It was authorized to survey laws on sex crimes, narcotics, wire tapping and other problems and report back to the 1957 Legislature.

Complicated Escape From Richmond Jail Leaves No Traces

RICHMOND, Mo. — Charles Hatcher, 25, awaiting trial on an automobile theft charge, picked a lock, dug a hole in the roof, slid down a hose and escaped from the Ray County Jail Tuesday.

Hatcher, formerly of St. Joseph but who had been living near Orrick in this county, had been in jail six months. He was due for trial this month.

Mrs. Barbara Craven, who acts as jailer for her husband, Sheriff E. W. Craven, said three other prisoners, who refused to accompany Hatcher in the break, reported the prisoner made his getaway between 1 and 2 a.m.

Mrs. Craven said Hatcher used a wire to pick the lock on the bull pen in which he and the others were held, dug a small hole in the roof with a piece of iron. A section of hose, apparently left on the roof by workmen who painted the roof of the two-story building a year ago, was fastened to the roof and Hatcher slid down this to the porch of the jail.

Sheriff Craven reported no trace of him had been found by mid-morning.

Free Lunch CLEVELAND — Lou Watson, who recently moved his restaurant from downtown Cleveland to suburban Lakewood several miles away, says a flock of pigeons which patronized the back door of his old place now visit his new one. He says he's sure they're the same ones because they are so tame.
